HEAD COACH SUNNY GOLLOWAY

Sunny Golloway has led the Sooners to five NCAA Regional finals, 261 victories and a top 25 ranking in each of his six years at the helm of the OU program. The Sooners have hosted three NCAA Regionals under Golloway while appearing in the program's only Super Regional appearances (2006 and 2010) and making it back to the College World Series in 2010 for the first time since 1995.

OU posted the program's third straight 40-win regular season in 2011, a first since 1989, and finished third in the Big 12 standings while making the program's fourth straight NCAA postseason appearance.

The 2011 season ended with Michael Rocha (second team) and Dillon Overton (freshman) collecting All-America honors, while a program-best 11 players were selected in the MLB Draft in June.

In 2010, the Sooners made the program's 10th appearance in the College World Series and first since 1995. The path started after OU hosted an NCAA Regional for the second straight year and advanced to the program's second Super Regional appearance. Fifteen of those wins came in Big 12 play as OU finished in second place in the standings for the second straight year. In addition, Garrett Buechele (first team) and Max White (freshman) were named All-Americans.

Including eight seasons (1996-2003) as the head coach at Oral Roberts and his record at OU's helm, Golloway is 596-291-1 (.672). His winning percentage ranks No. 15 nationally among active head coaches (min. five years).
