NCAA CHAMPIONSHIPS - MAY 19-22

Senior Kendall Dye

NORMAN, Okla. – University of Oklahoma senior Kendall Dye will compete individually at the 2009 NCAA Championships May 19-22 (Tuesday - Friday) in Owings Mills, Md. Georgetown University will host the tournament at the 6,443-yard, par-72 Caves Valley Golf Club.

A total of 324 golfers competed at three different regional sites May 7-9. Of those, 124 qualified for the finals, with the top eight teams and top two individuals from each regional advancing. All participants will compete throughout the 72 holes (four rounds) of this week's championship competition.

This marks the first time for Dye to compete in the championships. Her advancement to the national stage comes after last week's 12th-place finish at the NCAA Central Regional in Columbus, Ohio, where she fired a three-round 226 (+10). She was the top finisher among unattached individual competitors at the site.

Dye, an Edmond, Okla., native, experienced a senior season with top-25 finishes in all 11 of the tournaments in which she's competed. In April, she finished first at the Susie Maxwell and tied for medalist honors at the Big 12 Championship. She was selected to the all-conference team and named Big 12 women's golfer of the month.

The first round of NCAA Championships competition will start on Tuesday at 8 a.m. CT. Live scoring will be available at www.golfstat.com.
