AT A GLANCE:

The second-ranked Oklahoma women's gymnastics squad returns to the Lloyd Noble Center on Friday, Feb. 5 at 7 p.m. (CT) for a meeting with conference-rival Nebraska (No. 10) and TWU. The meet is OU's annual "Flip for a Cause" meet in promotion of women's heart health awareness.

Oklahoma is competing in Norman for the first time since its season-opening victory over No. 4 Florida on Jan. 8. The Sooners have since been on a three-meet road stand, their longest of the regular season.

Friday's meet features the highest two ranked squads in the Big 12, both entering the meet with unblemished records in 2010. OU and NU split the season series a year ago, with Oklahoma clinching its second-straight conference title after dropping the regular season decision in Lincoln.

OU holds the top season average in the Big 12 on each event, while the Huskers rank second on vault and floor. Individually, Oklahoma's Hollie Vise (bars, beam) and Jackie Flanery (floor) rank first on those respective events. NU's Erin Davis holds the top vault average among conference gymnasts.

JACKIE FLANERY

Flanery returns to the Lloyd Noble Center for the second time during her senior send-off after posting 9.8s or higher in all three of her routines in OU's home opener as the Sooners stunned fourth-ranked Florida on Jan. 8.

The Plattsburg, Mo., native scored a career-high 9.95 on floor in last week's Metroplex Challenge, including a perfect 10.00 from one member of the judges panel.

Flanery was posted five event wins in 2010, including four on floor exercise where she ranks fourth in the country with an average of 9.894.

The Sooners face 10 squads ranked in the preseason top-25 coaches poll, including three ranked in the top 10.

GYMINFO RANKING SCHEDULE:

Through Feb. 8, the teams are ranked by total season average. Beginning Feb. 15, the ranking is done by Regional Qualifying Score which consists of a team's three highest road scores and the next three highest scores. The high score is subtracted from the six event totals and the remaining amount is divided by five.)

ROTATION SCHEDULE

Rotation	Vault	Bars	Beam	Floor
1	OKLAHOMA	Nebraska	TWU	-
2	-	OKLAHOMA	Nebraska	TWU
3	TWU	-	OKLAHOMA	Nebraska
4	Nebraska	TWU	-	OKLAHOMA

KNOW THE FOE

Friday's meeting is the 81st between Oklahoma and Nebraska, the most of any OU opponent. Although the Huskers hold a 60-20 lead in the all-time series, the Sooners are 4-2 against NU under K.J. Kindler.

Oklahoma and TWU have competed seven times previously during Kindler's tenure, with the Sooners winning every meeting, including last week at the Metroplex Challenge. OU is 56-3 all-time against the Pioneers dating back to the first meeting in 1984.

REGULAR SEASON SENSATIONS

Oklahoma is 47-6 in the regular season under K.J. Kindler, including a perfect 6-0 mark in 2010. The Sooners went 10-4 during the regular season in 2009, with three of those losses coming on the road (Florida, Nebraska and Alabama).

SENIOR SUCCESS

Senior's Hollie Vise and Jackie Flanery both rank in the top five nationally in the latest individual standings. Vise is the best beam worker in the country through the first four weeks of the season and also ranks fifth on bars, while Flanery is ranked fifth on floor after her 9.95 on the apparatus last weekend.

HAD TO HAPPEN AT SOME POINT

Oklahoma was forced to count its first fall of the season on any event with two falls on beam at the Metroplex Challenge in the fourth meet of the year. The Sooners entered the meet as the only school in the country that had not counted a score lower than 9.7 this season. OU's consistency has still been top-notch though, as Oklahoma has hit 92-of-96 routines on the year.

HOME SWEET HOME

The Sooners are 23-2 in Norman under fourth-year head coach K.J. Kindler. OU's only two losses at home have come against SEC opponents in Alabama and Arkansas. Top-seeded Alabama knocked off the Sooners en route to the NCAA South Central Regional title in 2008, while OU's loss to Arkansas in the 2009 home opener marked Oklahoma's only regular season home defeat in Kindler's tenure.

Among the 55 home wins since 2000 are notable victories over Auburn, Georgia, Florida, Illinois, Iowa State, Missouri, Nebraska, Penn State, Stanford and West Virginia.

BUT THE ROAD ISN'T BAD EITHER...

The Sooners seek some of the same road success in 2010 that they have exhibited in recent years. On the young season, both of Oklahoma's top scores have come in road competition, including a 196.650 at No. 25 Illinois.

Five of OU's top seven scores (including a season-high 197.175 at TWU) came away from Norman in 2009, a year after five of Oklahoma's top seven scores (including three of the top four and a season-best-tying 196.750 at Arkansas) came on the road. Oklahoma was the only squad in the top 10 to have both of its top two scores from 2009 come in road competition. OU's 197.175-189.600 victory at TWU last season marked its best team score since Jan. 24, 2004 (197.300).

DAZZLING DEBUT

Thirty-one of Oklahoma's 96 routines this season have been performed by freshmen (.323), including exactly half of OU's uneven bars routines (12 of 24). The group is 30-of-31 on the year. Each freshman that has competed has scored at least a 9.8 in one of their routines, while Natasha Kelley has already tallied six scores of at least 9.85.

BEAM QUEENS

Just like last season's second road meet of the season, the OU beam squad provided its breakout performance of the 2010 campaign in its second road outing at Illinois with a team tally of 49.500 on the apparatus. OU reeled off five straight 9.85s or better after a fall from the first position on beam at Illinois. Vise and Smith shared event honors with 9.95s, while Ferguson (9.9), Kelley (9.85) and Nowak (9.85) completed a sweep of the individual event standings on the apparatus.

Oklahoma's beam tally was its second highest event total under Kindler, just behind OU's 49.525 on beam at TWU on Jan. 17, 2009.

RACKING UP THE TITLES

The Sooners have collected 27 of a possible 32 combined individual and team event titles in 2010, including at least six combined individual and team event wins in each meet. OU has won every team event title on bars, beam and floor in 2010.

COMING FROM BEHIND

OU trailed for the first time after any rotation this season as Illinois opened with a 49.100 on vault, to OU's 49.000 start on bars. The Sooners overtook the Fighting Illini during the next rotation and cruised to their eighth-straight win over Illinois, remaining undefeated in the series and posting the second-largest margin of victory in any meeting between the two programs (+2.255).

NO "I" IN TEAM

OU has found a way to win lately despite the lack of a true all-around presence. Oklahoma did not have an all-arounder compete against Florida, Auburn or the Metroplex Challenge, while the Sooners were the only squad ranked in the final 2009 top-15 GymInfo poll without a gymnast in the top-25 all-around rankings.

Freshman Kayla Nowak was a last-minute addition to the vault lineup at Illinois and placed second in her first collegiate all-around appearance. Nowak was competing in her home state for the first time in collegiate competition.

IN ELITE COMPANY

The Sooners are one of just six squads to advance to the NCAA Championships every year since 2004, joining Alabama, Florida, Georgia, LSU and Utah on that elite list. OU's six championship appearances in the last six years matches the other three Big 12 programs combined during that period. Nebraska advanced to the NCAA Championships from 2004-07, while Iowa State made back-to-back appearances in 2005 and 2006 under K.J. Kindler.

WISE "FLOORS" CROWD IN SEASON OPENER

Strictly a bars and beam specialist during her first three seasons in Norman, Hollie Vise performed her first collegiate routine on floor against the Gators. The Dallas, Texas, native scored a 9.825 on the apparatus, OU's third-highest score on the event in the season opener.

FAMILIAR FACES

Oklahoma's meeting with Auburn on Jan. 15, marked the 18th time the Sooners have faced a team from the state of Alabama since 2003. AU and OU have squared off on three occasions since '03, while Oklahoma has faced Alabama, the other collegiate squad from the Yellowhammer State, 15 times during that period.

SEC FAMILIARITY

OU will face four teams from the Southeastern Conference during the regular season, including two straight to begin the 2010 season. The Sooners have already defeated top-10 foes in Florida and Auburn. Oklahoma faces Alabama in Norman on March 5, in the eighth meeting between the two programs over the last four seasons, before travelling to Arkansas on March 19.

SOONERS AGAINST THE SEC

Oklahoma is 6-18 against teams from the Southeastern Conference under fourth-year head coach K.J. Kindler. That figure is skewed slightly as 17 of the 23 meetings have come in NCAA postseason competition against the upper echelon of the SEC. The Sooners are 3-4 against SEC foes in the regular season, with wins over Auburn (2010), Florida (2010) and Arkansas (2008).

FOLLOWING THE SOONERS

The OU gymnastics program maintains its own Facebook, YouTube and Twitter accounts, which are updated frequently with all of the latest news about the squad. Links to each of those pages can be found at www.SoonerSports.com, the official site of the Oklahoma Sooners.

TWO TOP COACHES

OU's season opener featured two recent recipients of the National Association of Collegiate Gymnastics Coaches (NACGC) Coach of the Year award. K.J. Kindler received the accolade in 2005 while at Iowa State, while Florida's Rhonda Faehn was named the national coach of the year in 2007.

PRACTICE MAKES PERFECT

If the old adage rings true, the Sooners should be on top of their game in 2010 as the team recently moved into of the top training gyms in the entire country. OU recently completed a state-of-the-art 7,000 square foot addition and a complete overhaul of the existing Sam Viersen Gymnastics Center for the men's and women's gymnastics squads.

Funded entirely by private donations without the use of any state or university appropriated funds, the project included a complete renovation of the current gym, locker rooms, sports medicine training rooms and the awards recognition room. A new storage area, a reconfiguration of foam and resi pits and an outdoor patio also highlighted the renovation.

STELLAR YEAR IN THE CLASSROOM

Nine OU gymnasts earned 2009 NACGC All-Academic Scholar awards as the Sooners posted their highest GPA since 2004. Oklahoma's nine honorees was third best among teams advancing to last year's NCAA Championship, behind only Alabama (13) and Stanford (10).

CLOSER LOOK AT OKLAHOMA IN 2010

The back-to-back Big 12 Champions opened the 2010 season ranked ninth in the GymInfo preseason coaches poll, the highest ranking of any conference squad. The Sooners return 11 members from last season's group that clinched OU's second straight conference title.

Headlining OU's returnees is sophomore All-American Megan Ferguson. The Olathe, Kan., native capped off her stellar freshman campaign by garnering All-America status on beam at the 2009 NCAA Championships. She became the first freshman in Big 12 history to win multiple event titles at the conference championship (bars and beam).

Other returnees include All-Big 12 selections in Jackie Flanery (floor - 2008), Melanie Root (vault - 2009), Kristin Smith (floor - 2009) and Hollie Vise (bars - 2008, beam - 2008, 2009). The quartet has combined for nine Big 12 Event Specialist of the Week honors in the past two seasons.

Also returning in 2010 are event title winners Mary Mantle (Big 12 Event Specialist of the Week on Feb. 12, 2008, after her vault win at Denver) and Sara Stone (three vault titles in 2009).

This season also marks the final send-off for Julie Kramer, while other returnees include juniors Candace Cindell and Natalie Ratcliff. Ratcliff was a mainstay in the vault and beam lineup a year ago.

OU gymnastics fans also will have their first chance to see Oklahoma's freshman class of Bethany Neubauer, Kayla Nowak, Brie Olson and Nitya Ramaswami. The class was ranked No. 9 in the country by CollegeGymFans.com.

2010 MEET-BY-MEET RECAPS

WEEK 1 - FLORIDA | JAN. 8, 2010

NORMAN, Okla. -- The No. 9 Oklahoma women's gymnastics squad led wire-to-wire in a 196.250-195.275 upset over fourth-ranked Florida in the Sooners' season opener on Friday in front of 1,325 fans at Lloyd Noble Center.

The victory over the Gators marked the highest-ranked opponent that OU has toppled under fourth-year head coach K.J. Kindler.

The Sooners improved to 23-2 in home meets under Kindler behind strong performances from veterans and newcomers alike, as Oklahoma picked up event titles on bars, beam and floor. OU also claimed individual event titles on each of those events as well, as Jackie Flanery (bars and floor), Hollie Vise (bars and beam) and Natasha Kelley (bars) claimed individual honors.

"This team (OU) came out with a whole other confidence that I've never seen before," said Kindler. "They didn't waiver when the door was opening, they didn't hesitate and they jumped in feet first. I was really impressed with that more than anything. They had a lot of confidence tonight."

OU opened the meet with a 48.950 on vault, paced by Mary Mantle's 9.85 from the anchor position. Mantle placed third in the individual standings on the apparatus, behind a pair of 9.875s from UF's Ashanee Dickerson and Maranda Smith. Flanery posted a 9.8 from the first spot, while freshman Bethany Neubauer matched Flanery's score in her first collegiate routine. Oklahoma took the early lead as Florida was forced to count a fall on bars (48.175).

The Sooners increased their lead to 98.125-97.425 through two rotations after a stellar bars set that resulted in the team event title. Flanery, Kelley and Vise all scored 9.85s to sweep the individual event honors for OU. Flanery's bar set marked a career best, while Kelley competed despite suffering a complete ACL tear less than two months ago. Reigning Big 12 bars co-champion Megan Ferguson tallied a 9.825, while Brie Olson scored a 9.8 in her collegiate debut.

Vise picked up her second individual victory of the night on beam (9.9), leading Oklahoma to its second event win of the evening. OU outscored the Gators 49.025-48.875 on the apparatus, as Ferguson (9.875) and Kelley (9.8) both posted solid routines.

The Sooners sealed the meet victory with an event-winning floor score of 49.100 - their third straight score of 49.000-plus on the night. Flanery picked up her second event title of the night (9.875), freshman Kayla Nowak (9.85) shared second in her debut, while Vise scored a 9.825 in her first collegiate routine on the apparatus.

"We hit 23-of-24 routines which is phenomenal for your first competition," said Kindler. "Now, there are always things we can do to improve, but I thought overall it was an excellent first meet. The freshmen and Natasha were phenomenal. They hit eight routines, out of eight, and were some of our highest scores. They definitely brought a level of confidence to our team.

Oklahoma improved to 42-6 in the regular season under Kindler.

2010 MEET-BY-MEET RECAPS

WEEK 3 - ILLINOIS | JAN. 23, 2010

CHAMPAIGN, ILL. - The second-ranked University of Oklahoma women's gymnastics squad improved to 3-0 on the year with a 196.650-194.425 win at No. 25 Illinois (3-3) on Saturday in Champaign, Ill. The Sooners improved to 7-0 all-time against the Fighting Illini, while tonight's +2.225 margin of victory was the second largest in the series.

OU won team titles in its final three events, including a season-high 49.500 on beam en route to its best team score since Feb. 27, 2009. The Sooners sealed the win with a pair of 9.95s on the apparatus from Hollie Vise and Kristin Smith in Oklahoma's final two routines of the evening.

"Instead of thinking about how they can stay on the equipment, I think we have adjusted the mindset to thinking about how confident they are and how they can nail their routine," said fourth-year head coach K.J. Kindler on OU's beam squad. "I was really encouraged by their mental strength on beam. Natalie (Ratcliff) is a phenomenal beam worker, but she missed tonight. The rest of the lineup rallied and wasn't going to give it away, which is very encouraging."

Freshman Kayla Nowak finished second in the all-around with a 39.050 in her first collegiate all-around performance, marking the first time this season the Sooners have had a gymnast compete all four events.

OU opened the dual meet with a team tally of 49.000 on the uneven bars in the event win. Ranked first in the nation on the apparatus entering the weekend, the Sooners hit six-of-six routines, paced by 9.85s from event winners Natasha Kelley and Vise. Jackie Flanery and Brie Olson both scored 9.775s on the apparatus for a share of third place. OU trailed after a rotation for the first time this season as Illinois scored a 49.100 on vault.

The Sooners posted four scores of 9.8 or higher on vault for a 49.050 team tally. Brie Olson led the way with a career-high 9.85 and a share of second in the individual standings. Jackie Flanery and Mary Mantle each scored a 9.825, while Sara Stone posted a 9.8.

Oklahoma overtook the Fighting Illini 98.050-97.025 at the midway point after the home squad was forced to count a fall on bars.

Flanery (9.9), Smith (9.85) Vise (9.825) and Mary Mantle (9.775) all posted season bests on floor en route to a team score of 49.100 on the apparatus. Flanery won her third-straight event title on the apparatus this season, while Smith and Vise finished third and fifth, respectively.

The Sooners posted their highest beam score in 14 meets (49.500) after reeling off five straight 9.85s or better after a fall from the first position. Vise and Smith shared event honors with 9.95s, while Ferguson (9.9), Kelley (9.85) and Nowak (9.85) completed a sweep of the individual event standings on the apparatus.

"I thought we came out a bit lethargic and really didn't stick any landings on vault or bars, where we entered the meet with a goal of hitting at least 50-percent of those routines," said Kindler. "We finally started gaining some momentum on floor, where I felt that Mary (Mantle), Hollie (Vise), Kristin (Smith) and Jackie (Flanery) all performed their best routines of the season."

2010 MEET-BY-MEET RECAPS

WEEK 4 - METROPLEX CHALLENGE | JAN. 30, 2010

DALLAS - The second-ranked University of Oklahoma women's gymnastics squad improved to 6-0 on the season with a quad meet win over Alaska-Anchorage, N.C. State and TWU at the 2010 Metroplex Challenge in Dallas on Saturday.

OU swept all four team event titles and improved to 47-6 in the regular season under fourth-year head coach K.J. Kindler after individual titles on bars (Hollie Vise – 9.925), beam (Vise – 9.925) and floor (Jackie Flanery – 9.95).

The Sooners were forced to count their first fall of the season on any apparatus with a pair of falls on beam, resulting in a season-low team score of 196.100. N.C. State (194.875) placed second, TWU (191.225) third and Alaska-Anchorage rounded out the quad meet in fourth (188.9).

"We had more mistakes tonight than we have had all year long, but we know mistakes are going to happen," said Kindler. "Kayla (Nowak), as a freshman, followed every single mistake on the three events we had and wow. . . turned it up a notch. That is impressive to see a freshman follow up a mistake and handle it the way she did. It was very mature and it was exciting to see.

"I think our team, since they haven't been put in that situation this year, handled it well. Obviously, we're looking for a better result. We'll look to up our game next week."

Oklahoma opened the meet with a season-high 49.075 on vault, paced by Sara Stone's season-high 9.875 that garnered individual event honors for the sophomore. OU received a pair of 9.85s from Brie Olson and Mary Mantle. Olson's routine matched last week's career high on the apparatus, while Mantle tied her season best performance. Natasha Kelley made her collegiate debut on vault and scored a 9.775, just two months after the Katy, Texas, native suffered a complete tear of her right ACL.

The Sooners matched their season high on bars with a 49.225 team tally, capped off by Vise's second-straight 9.925 on the apparatus in the individual win. OU survived a scare after freshman Brie Olson fell on her mount in the squad's second routine on bars, posting four straight routines of 9.825 or higher to close the rotation. The Sooners tallied a pair of 9.825s from Nowak and reigning Big 12 bars champ Megan Ferguson, while Kelley scored a 9.875 prior to Vise's routine from the anchor position.

OU counted its first fall of the season after slip-up's from Natalie Ratcliff and Kristin Smith in the first and last routines on beam, respectively. Oklahoma posted a season-low 48.600 on the apparatus, marking its first sub-49 score on beam this season. Vise paced the Sooners with her second 9.925 of the night, also resulting in her second event honor. Ferguson tallied a 9.85, while Nowak had a 9.8.

Flanery received a 10.00 from one floor judge en route to a 9.95 on the apparatus in the event win. Vise continued her spectacular night with a career-high 9.875 on the apparatus, while Smith rebounded from her fall on beam to score a 9.85.
