AT A GLANCE:

The top-ranked OU women's gymnastics squad travels to East Lansing, Mich., for a non-conference meeting with Michigan State. Oklahoma regained the top spot in the country this week after posting a 197.050-195.500 victory at No. 17 Missouri on Feb. 19. OU posted the second highest road score to date this season in the win, sweeping the team event titles for the second consecutive meet.

OU became the first Big 12 program to be ranked No. 1 in the country for multiple weeks during a single season as the Sooners posted a score over 197.000 in back-to-back meets for the first time since 2004.

Oklahoma swept all four team event titles for the second week in a row in its last outing, improving to 19-2 against conference opponents under fourth-year head coach K.J. Kindler.

The Sooners are ranked in the top six on every apparatus, including No. 1 RQS rankings on beam (49.140) and floor (49.185). OU's team event rankings are the highest in the Big 12 on each event.

Individually, Hollie Vise leads the nation on beam with a RQS of 9.900 and stands second on bars (9.895). Megan Ferguson is in a four-way tie for second behind Vise on beam (9.895), while Jackie Flanery (floor - 9.890) and Natasha Kelley (bars - 9.855) rank fourth and 10th, respectively.

ON THE WEB

OU's home meets can be seen via a live web cast with commentary from Sooner All-American Kasie Tamayo and Ashley Alden on Oklahoma All-Access, SoonerSports.com's premium site. Live stats for all meets can be found on SoonerSports.com.

TICKETS

For home meet tickets, call (405) 325-2424 or toll-free (800) 456-GoOU. Tickets can also be purchased at the main ticket office in Gaylord Family-Oklahoma Memorial Stadium or at Lloyd Noble Center on the day of the meet.

PRACTICE POLICY

Practices have resumed at the Sam Viersen Center, directly north and across the street (Imhoff) from the Lloyd Noble Center. Practices are typically open to media. However, those who wish to attend must obtain clearance through Phillip Rogers in the OU Athletics Communications Office prior to the start of practice. Practice generally runs from 10:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. The best time to conduct interviews is immediately following practice.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

Media credentials for home contests at the Lloyd Noble Center should be requested no later than one day prior to the event. All requests should be directed to Phillip Rogers in the Communications Office at (405) 325-8413 or by e-mail to philliprogers@ou.edu.

POST-MEET INFORMATION

Post-meet interviews will take place on the main floor of the Lloyd Noble Center after head coach K.J. Kindler dismisses her athletes. Official score sheets will be available at the scorer's table.

MEDIA INTERVIEWS

Non-postmeet interview requests for athletes and coaches must be arranged through Phillip Rogers in the Athletics Communications Office. All requests should be submitted at least one day in advance of the desired interview time.

The official site of OU Athletics supplies Sooner fans worldwide with the latest news and features on Oklahoma athletics direct from Norman. The site provides the latest press releases, rosters, bios, schedules, statistics, notes, quotes and photo galleries available to both Sooner fans and the media.

GYMNAST TO WATCH:

NATASHA KELLEY

Competing on a 100% torn ACL, Natasha Kelley led OU to its highest road score of the season (197.050) with three routines of 9.85 or higher including a career-high 9.9 on vault. The redshirt-freshman bested every Missouri event specialist on every apparatus she competed, with top-five finishes on all three events.

Kelley is the reigning Big 12 Event Specialist of the Week, marking the Sooners third straight honoree of the weekly conference accolade and fifth different OU gymnast to garner the award this season, tying Oklahoma's Big 12 record set in 2008.

^ — Denotes OU's regular season opponents.

The Sooners face 10 squads ranked in the preseason top-25 coaches poll, including three ranked in the top 10.

GYMINFO RANKING SCHEDULE:

Through Feb. 8, the teams are ranked by total season average. Beginning Feb. 15, the ranking is done by Regional Qualifying Score which consists of a team's three highest road scores and the next three highest scores. The high score is subtracted from the six event totals and the remaining amount is divided by five.

KNOW THE FOE

Michigan State returns seven of nine letterwinners from last year's squad that finished the 2009 season with an 11-11 record and a sixth-place finish at the Big Ten Championships under 19th-year head coach Kathie Klages. The Spartans are led by Nicole Curler, who currently ranks 27th in the all-around RQS standings at 38.875.

OU has won all four previous meetings in the series, including a 195.925-194.800 victory at the 2007 NCAA Central Regional in the last match up between the two programs.

THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN HOME AND AWAY

The Sooners have posted a season average of 196.775 in home meets and a 196.525 on the road. The 0.250 difference is the lowest of any team ranked in this week's top five. In contrast, Alabama and Florida are averaging a full point higher in home meets.

TEAM	HOME AVERAGE	AWAY AVERAGE	DIFFERENCE
No. 1 Oklahoma	196.775	196.525	0.250
No. 2 Alabama	197.100	196.100	1.000
No. 3 UCLA	196.525	195.775	0.750
No. 4 Florida	196.850	195.850	1.000
No. 5 Georgia	196.358	196.013	0.345

BIG SCORE COMPARISON

OU has posted 31 scores of 9.9 or higher through its first seven meets this season, compared to just 11 at this point last year. Seven different gymnasts have scored at least a 9.9 in 2010, paced by Hollie Vise's 10 routines that have scored a 9.9 or better.

REGULAR SEASON SENSATIONS

Oklahoma is 51-6 in the regular season under K.J. Kindler, including a perfect 10-0 mark in 2010. The Sooners went 10-4 during the regular season in 2009, with three of those losses coming on the road (Florida, Nebraska and Alabama).

HOME SWEET HOME

The Sooners are 26-2 in Norman under fourth-year head coach K.J. Kindler. OU's only two losses at home have come against SEC opponents in Alabama and Arkansas. Top-seeded Alabama knocked off the Sooners en route to the NCAA South Central Regional title in 2008, while OU's loss to Arkansas in the 2009 home opener marked Oklahoma's only regular season home defeat in Kindler's tenure.

Among the 55 home wins since 2000 are notable victories over Auburn, Georgia, Florida, Illinois, Iowa State, Missouri, Nebraska, Penn State, Stanford and West Virginia.

BUT THE ROAD ISN'T BAD EITHER...

The Sooners seek some of the same road success in 2010 that they have exhibited in recent years. On the young season, three of Oklahoma's top five scores have come in road competition, including a 197.050 at Mizzou last week. Five of OU's top seven scores (including a season-high 197.175 at TWU) came away from Norman in 2009, a year after five of Oklahoma's top seven scores (including three of the top four and a season-best-tying 196.750 at Arkansas) came on the road. Oklahoma was the only squad in the top 10 to have both of its top two scores from 2009 come in road competition.

TOPS IN THE CONFERENCE

Oklahoma holds the best season average of all four Big 12 squads on every apparatus, while the Sooners hold the top mark in the individual standings on every event but vault. The back-to-back Big 12 Champions are 19-2 against conference opponents under K.J. Kindler, including a 11-1 mark during the regular season.

MILESTONE MOMENT

With its No. 1 ranking on Feb. 22, OU became the first Big 12 program to be ranked No. 1 in the country for multiple weeks during a single season. Oklahoma originally ascended to No. 1 nationally on Feb. 8, marking the first women's sport at OU to be ranked No. 1 during the regular season.

HIGH MARKS

Oklahoma has gone 49.375 or higher on every event this season, including a 49.5 (beam) and a 49.6 (floor). The floor tally is the highest event score on any apparatus through the first seven weeks of the season.

NO "I" IN TEAM

OU has found a way to win despite the lack of a true all-around presence. Oklahoma's only all-around competitor this season was Kayla Nowak against Illinois, while the Sooners were the only squad ranked in the final 2009 top-15 GymInfo poll without a gymnast in the top-25 all-around rankings.

Nowak was a last-minute addition to the vault lineup at Illinois and placed second in her first collegiate all-around appearance.

MORE ON THE TEAM APPROACH

In OU's seven meets this season, it has had five different gymnasts post the team's highest score on vault, four on bars, three on beam and two on floor. In all, nine different Oklahoma gymnasts have at least tied for OU's highest score on an event during a meet this season.

DAZZLING DEBUT

Fifty-five of Oklahoma's 168 routines this season have been performed by freshmen (.327), including exactly half of OU's uneven bars routines (21-of-42). The group is 54-of-55 on the year. Each freshman that has competed has scored at least a 9.8 in one of their routines, while Natasha Kelley has already tallied 15 scores of at least 9.85.

RACKING UP THE TITLES

The Sooners have collected 48 of a possible 56 combined individual and team event titles in 2010, including at least six combined individual and team event wins in each meet. OU has won every team event title on bars and floor in 2010.

BAR STARS

Every Oklahoma gymnast in the bar lineup against Iowa State set or tied a career high. The Sooners posted a 49.425 on the apparatus, marking their third different event to record a score of at least 49.400 on this season. OU, Alabama and Georgia are the only three teams in the country that have scored at least a 49.400 on three different events in 2010.

It was the second week in a row that the Sooners have had at least four gymnasts set a career high during a single rotation as OU had four gymnasts in the floor lineup accomplish the feat against Nebraska and TWU.

IN ELITE COMPANY

The Sooners are one of just six squads to advance to the NCAA Championships every year since 2004, joining Alabama, Florida, Georgia, LSU and Utah on that elite list. OU's six championship appearances in the last six years matches the other three Big 12 programs combined during that period. Nebraska advanced to the NCAA Championships from 2004-07, while Iowa State made back-to-back appearances in 2005 and 2006 under K.J. Kindler.

SOONER "FLOOR" COMPETITION

OU posted its highest event score on any apparatus under Kindler with a 49.600 on the floor exercise against Nebraska. The Sooners closed the rotation with five scores of 9.9 or higher. Oklahoma picked up career highs from Kristin Smith (9.95), Kayla Nowak (9.925), Hollie Vise (9.925) and Megan Ferguson (9.9), while Flanery sealed the win with a 9.9 in the final routine of the night.

BEAM QUEENS

Just like last season's second road meet of the season, the OU beam squad provided its breakout performance of the 2010 campaign in its second road outing at Illinois with a team tally of 49.500 on the apparatus. OU reeled off five straight 9.85s or better after a fall from the first position on beam at Illinois. Vise and Smith shared event honors with 9.95s, while Ferguson (9.9), Kelley (9.85) and Nowak (9.85) completed a sweep of the individual event standings on the apparatus.

Oklahoma's beam tally was its second highest event total on the apparatus under Kindler, just behind OU's 49.525 on beam at TWU on Jan. 17, 2009.

COMING FROM BEHIND

OU has trailed after a rotation just twice this season (at Missouri and at Illinois). The Sooners haven't trailed after the second rotation yet this season, overcoming a 49.150-49.100 deficit against the Tigers and a 49.100-49.000 deficit in Champaign to take leads at the halfway point of both meets.

FOLLOWING THE SOONERS

The OU gymnastics program maintains its own Facebook, YouTube and Twitter accounts, which are updated frequently with all of the latest news about the squad. Links to each of those pages can be found at www.SoonerSports.com, the official site of the Oklahoma Sooners.

PRACTICE MAKES PERFECT

If the old adage rings true, the Sooners should be on top of their game in 2010 as the team recently moved into of the top training gyms in the entire country. OU recently completed a state-of-the-art 7,000 square foot addition and a complete overhaul of the existing Sam Viersen Gymnastics Center for the men's and women's gymnastics squads.

Funded entirely by private donations without the use of any state or university appropriated funds, the project included a complete renovation of the current gym, locker rooms, sports medicine training rooms and the awards recognition room. A new storage area, a reconfiguration of foam and resi pits and an outdoor patio also highlighted the renovation.

STELLAR YEAR IN THE CLASSROOM

Nine OU gymnasts earned 2009 NACGC All-Academic Scholar awards as the Sooners posted their highest GPA since 2004. Oklahoma's nine honorees was third best among teams advancing to last year's NCAA Championship, behind only Alabama (13) and Stanford (10).

CLOSER LOOK AT OKLAHOMA IN 2010

The back-to-back Big 12 Champions opened the 2010 season ranked ninth in the GymInfo preseason coaches poll, the highest ranking of any conference squad. The Sooners return 11 members from last season's group that clinched OU's second straight conference title.

Headlining OU's returnees is sophomore All-American Megan Ferguson. The Olathe, Kan., native capped off her stellar freshman campaign by garnering All-America status on beam at the 2009 NCAA Championships. She became the first freshman in Big 12 history to win multiple event titles at the conference championship (bars and beam).

Other returnees include All-Big 12 selections in Jackie Flanery (floor - 2008), Melanie Root (vault - 2009), Kristin Smith (floor - 2009) and Hollie Vise (bars - 2008, beam - 2008, 2009). The quartet has combined for nine Big 12 Event Specialist of the Week honors in the past two seasons.

Also returning in 2010 are event title winners Mary Mantle (Big 12 Event Specialist of the Week on Feb. 12, 2008, after her vault win at Denver) and Sara Stone (three vault titles in 2009).

This season also marks the final send-off for Julie Kramer, while other returnees include juniors Candace Cindell and Natalie Ratcliff. Ratcliff was a mainstay in the vault and beam lineup a year ago.

OU gymnastics fans also will have their first chance to see Oklahoma's freshman class of Bethany Neubauer, Kayla Nowak, Brie Olson and Nitya Ramaswami. The class was ranked No. 9 in the country by CollegeGymFans.com.

2010 MEET-BY-MEET RECAPS

WEEK 1 - FLORIDA | JAN. 8, 2010

NORMAN, Okla. -- The No. 9 Oklahoma women's gymnastics squad led wire-to-wire in a 196.250-195.275 upset over fourth-ranked Florida in the Sooners' season opener on Friday in front of 1,325 fans at Lloyd Noble Center.

The victory over the Gators marked the highest-ranked opponent that OU has toppled under fourth-year head coach K.J. Kindler.

The Sooners improved to 23-2 in home meets under Kindler behind strong performances from veterans and newcomers alike, as Oklahoma picked up event titles on bars, beam and floor. OU also claimed individual event titles on each of those events as well, as Jackie Flanery (bars and floor), Hollie Vise (bars and beam) and Natasha Kelley (bars) claimed individual honors.

"This team (OU) came out with a whole other confidence that I've never seen before," said Kindler. "They didn't waiver when the door was opening, they didn't hesitate and they jumped in feet first. I was really impressed with that more than anything. They had a lot of confidence tonight."

OU opened the meet with a 48.950 on vault, paced by Mary Mantle's 9.85 from the anchor position. Mantle placed third in the individual standings on the apparatus, behind a pair of 9.875s from UF's Ashanee Dickerson and Maranda Smith. Flanery posted a 9.8 from the first spot, while freshman Bethany Neubauer matched Flanery's score in her first collegiate routine. Oklahoma took the early lead as Florida was forced to count a fall on bars (48.175).

The Sooners increased their lead to 98.125-97.425 through two rotations after a stellar bars set that resulted in the team event title. Flanery, Kelley and Vise all scored 9.85s to sweep the individual event honors for OU. Flanery's bar set marked a career best, while Kelley competed despite suffering a complete ACL tear less than two months ago. Reigning Big 12 bars co-champion Megan Ferguson tallied a 9.825, while Brie Olson scored a 9.8 in her collegiate debut.

Vise picked up her second individual victory of the night on beam (9.9), leading Oklahoma to its second event win of the evening. OU outscored the Gators 49.025-48.875 on the apparatus, as Ferguson (9.875) and Kelley (9.8) both posted solid routines.

The Sooners sealed the meet victory with an event-winning floor score of 49.100 - their third straight score of 49.000-plus on the night. Flanery picked up her second event title of the night (9.875), freshman Kayla Nowak (9.85) shared second in her debut, while Vise scored a 9.825 in her first collegiate routine on the apparatus.

"We hit 23-of-24 routines which is phenomenal for your first competition," said Kindler. "Now, there are always things we can do to improve, but I thought overall it was an excellent first meet. The freshmen and Natasha were phenomenal. They hit eight routines, out of eight, and were some of our highest scores. They definitely brought a level of confidence to our team.

Oklahoma improved to 42-6 in the regular season under Kindler.

WEEK 2 - AUBURN | JAN. 15, 2010

AUBURN, Ala. -- The No. 2 Oklahoma women's gymnastics squad (2-0, 0-0 Big 12) posted its second straight win over an SEC opponent with a 196.300-195.325 victory at Auburn (0-2, 0-1 SEC) on Friday.

OU led wire-to-wire for the second straight meet, quieting the 5,750 hometown fans inside Beard-Eaves-Memorial Coliseum.

The Sooners hit 24-of-24 routines en route to a sweep of all four event titles, as Oklahoma broke the 49.000-point barrier on every apparatus. Individually, Hollie Vise (bars-9.925, beam-9.875), Megan Ferguson (beam-9.875) and Jackie Flanery (floor-9.85) won event titles.

"It is very exciting to be on the road for the first time and see how tough you are, in particular because our warm up was not one without a couple of hiccups," said head coach K.J. Kindler. "I felt that they really regrouped and got their heads together. I'm very proud of how they performed. We were solid throughout, but the girls realize there is so much room for improvement which is the exciting part."

OU improved to 43-6 in the regular season under Kindler, including back-to-back victories over top-10 opponents to open the 2010 campaign, without an all-arounder in the lineup for the second straight meet.

Oklahoma opened the dual meet with a season-high 49.225 on bars, capped off by Vise's career-high 9.925 from the anchor position that sealed the individual and event win on the apparatus. OU was consistent throughout the entire lineup, as all six Sooners in the bars rotation scored a 9.8 or higher. Natasha Kelley matched her score from last week's win over Florida (9.85), while Jackie Flanery and Ferguson both tallied 9.825s.

OU's uneven bars score was its highest since its last regular season venture into SEC territory, when the Sooners posted a season-high 49.250 at Alabama on March 13, 2009.

The Sooners won the vault title with their second consecutive season high to start the meet. Oklahoma posted a team tally of 49.050 on the apparatus, paced by Natalie Ratcliff's 9.85. Sara Stone (9.825), Jackie Flanery (9.8) and Mary Mantle (9.8) all broke the 9.8 barrier. Melanie Root was a last minute replacement in the lineup and posted a 9.7.

Flanery led the Sooners with a 9.85 on floor from the anchor position as Oklahoma scored a 49.000 on the event. Ferguson and Kristin Smith both notched 9.825, season best's for each.

OU clinched the win with a team score of 49.025 on beam. The Sooners recorded a pair of 9.875s from Ferguson, the reigning Big 12 beam champion and 2009 All-American, and Vise.

"I thought we showed a lot of strength, particularly on bars," said Kindler. "Getting off to the start that we did was vital on the road."

Friday's victory over the Tigers was Oklahoma's third straight over AU and evened the all-time series at four apiece. Through two meets, Oklahoma has won 14 of a possible 16 combined team and individual event titles.

WEEK 3 - ILLINOIS | JAN. 23, 2010

CHAMPAIGN, ILL. - The second-ranked University of Oklahoma women's gymnastics squad improved to 3-0 on the year with a 196.650-194.425 win at No. 25 Illinois (3-3) on Saturday in Champaign, Ill. The Sooners improved to 7-0 all-time against the Fighting Illini, while tonight's +2.225 margin of victory was the second largest in the series.

OU won team titles in its final three events, including a season-high 49.500 on beam en route to its best team score since Feb. 27, 2009. The Sooners sealed the win with a pair of 9.95s on the apparatus from Hollie Vise and Kristin Smith in Oklahoma's final two routines of the evening.

"Instead of thinking about how they can stay on the equipment, I think we have adjusted the mindset to thinking about how confident they are and how they can nail their routine," said fourth-year head coach K.J. Kindler on OU's beam squad. "I was really encouraged by their mental strength on beam. Natalie (Ratcliff) is a phenomenal beam worker, but she missed tonight. The rest of the lineup rallied and wasn't going to give it away, which is very encouraging."

Freshman Kayla Nowak finished second in the all-around with a 39.050 in her first collegiate all-around performance, marking the first time this season the Sooners have had a gymnast compete all four events.

OU opened the dual meet with a team tally of 49.000 on the uneven bars in the event win. Ranked first in the nation on the apparatus entering the weekend, the Sooners hit six-of-six routines, paced by 9.85s from event winners Natasha Kelley and Vise. Jackie Flanery and Brie Olson both scored 9.775s on the apparatus for a share of third place. OU trailed after a rotation for the first time this season as Illinois scored a 49.100 on vault.

The Sooners posted four scores of 9.8 or higher on vault for a 49.050 team tally. Brie Olson led the way with a career-high 9.85 and a share of second in the individual standings. Jackie Flanery and Mary Mantle each scored a 9.825, while Sara Stone posted a 9.8.

Oklahoma overtook the Fighting Illini 98.050-97.025 at the midway point after the home squad was forced to count a fall on bars.

Flanery (9.9), Smith (9.85) Vise (9.825) and Mary Mantle (9.775) all posted season bests on floor en route to a team score of 49.100 on the apparatus. Flanery won her third-straight event title on the apparatus this season, while Smith and Vise finished third and fifth, respectively.

The Sooners posted their highest beam score in 14 meets (49.500) after reeling off five straight 9.85s or better after a fall from the first position. Vise and Smith shared event honors with 9.95s, while Ferguson (9.9), Kelley (9.85) and Nowak (9.85) completed a sweep of the individual event standings on the apparatus.

"I thought we came out a bit lethargic and really didn't stick any landings on vault or bars, where we entered the meet with a goal of hitting at least 50-percent of those routines," said Kindler. "We finally started gaining some momentum on floor, where I felt that Mary (Mantle), Hollie (Vise), Kristin (Smith) and Jackie (Flanery) all performed their best routines of the season."

WEEK 4 - METROPLEX CHALLENGE | JAN. 30, 2010

DALLAS - The second-ranked University of Oklahoma women's gymnastics squad improved to 6-0 on the season with a quad meet win over Alaska-Anchorage, N.C. State and TWU at the 2010 Metroplex Challenge in Dallas on Saturday.

OU swept all four team event titles and improved to 47-6 in the regular season under fourth-year head coach K.J. Kindler after individual titles on bars (Hollie Vise – 9.925), beam (Vise – 9.925) and floor (Jackie Flanery – 9.95).

The Sooners were forced to count their first fall of the season on any apparatus with a pair of falls on beam, resulting in a season-low team score of 196.100. N.C. State (194.875) placed second, TWU (191.225) third and Alaska-Anchorage rounded out the quad meet in fourth (188.9).

"We had more mistakes tonight than we have had all year long, but we know mistakes are going to happen," said Kindler. "Kayla (Nowak), as a freshman, followed every single mistake on the three events we had and wow... turned it up a notch. That is impressive to see a freshman follow up a mistake and handle it the way she did. It was very mature and it was exciting to see.

"I think our team, since they haven't been put in that situation this year, handled it well. Obviously, we're looking for a better result. We'll look to up our game next week."

Oklahoma opened the meet with a season-high 49.075 on vault, paced by Sara Stone's season-high 9.875 that garnered individual event honors for the sophomore. OU received a pair of 9.85s from Brie Olson and Mary Mantle. Olson's routine matched last week's career high on the apparatus, while Mantle tied her season best performance. Natasha Kelley made her collegiate debut on vault and scored a 9.775, just two months after the Katy, Texas, native suffered a complete tear of her right ACL.

The Sooners matched their season high on bars with a 49.225 team tally, capped off by Vise's second-straight 9.925 on the apparatus in the individual win. OU survived a scare after freshman Brie Olson fell on her mount in the squad's second routine on bars, posting four straight routines of 9.825 or higher to close the rotation. The Sooners tallied a pair of 9.825s from Nowak and reigning Big 12 bars champ Megan Ferguson, while Kelley scored a 9.875 prior to Vise's routine from the anchor position.

OU counted its first fall of the season after slip-up's from Natalie Ratcliff and Kristin Smith in the first and last routines on beam, respectively. Oklahoma posted a season-low 48.600 on the apparatus, marking its first sub-49 score on beam this season. Vise paced the Sooners with her second 9.925 of the night, also resulting in her second event honor. Ferguson tallied a 9.85, while Nowak had a 9.8.

Flanery received a 10.00 from one floor judge en route to a 9.95 on the apparatus in the event win. Vise continued her spectacular night with a career-high 9.875 on the apparatus, while Smith rebounded from her fall on beam to score a 9.85.

WEEK 5 - NEBRASKA AND TWU | FEB. 5, 2010

NORMAN, Okla. - The second-ranked OU women's gymnastics squad remained undefeated on the year (8-0, 1-0 Big 12) with a wire-to-wire triangular victory over No. 10 Nebraska (6-1) and TWU (3-5) in front of 1,405 fans at Lloyd Noble Center on Friday.

The Sooners scored a season-high 196.825 despite counting a fall on beam, outdistancing Big 12 rival Nebraska and TWU, who posted scores of 196.225 and 192.575, respectively.

OU won team event titles on vault, bars and floor and swept all four individual titles with event wins on vault (Jackie Flanery – tied with a 9.9), bars (Hollie Vise – 9.9), beam (Megan Ferguson – 9.925) and floor (Kristin Smith – 9.95).

The Sooners didn't compete an all-arounder for the fourth meet this season, while a different OU gymnast led the team on each event.

Oklahoma had to outmatch a Husker squad that also posted a season high team tally on Friday and the result was in question until the final routine. After counting a fall on beam that tightened the team standings, OU closed the meet with a season-high 49.600 on floor, marking the Sooners highest event total under fourth-year head coach K.J. Kindler.

Oklahoma opened with a season-high 49.375 on vault, easily eclipsing its previous high of 49.075 at last week's Metroplex Challenge. Flanery (9.9), Natasha Kelley (9.875) and Brie Olson (9.875) set career highs, while Melanie Root (9.85) and Sara Stone (9.875) posted season bests. Mary Mantle turned in a 9.825 from the anchor position as the entire Sooner vault lineup scored at least a 9.825.

"I really thought that vault and floor were some of our best performances of the year," said Kindler. "In particular, on vault the way we started out with Jackie Flanery. That was actually our best vault in the lineup and she nailed it. It was a great start for our team on that event. We kind of got on a roll from that."

The Sooners started a bit slow on bars, before Kelley and Vise capped off the rotation with scores of 9.85 and 9.9, respectively. It was Vise's fifth straight win on the apparatus dating back to Oklahoma's season opener against Florida. OU posted a 48.975 on the apparatus, marking the first time this season the Sooners haven't scored a 49-plus on the event.

Ferguson (9.925) and Kelley (9.875) finished one-two in the individual standings on beam, but the Sooners were forced to count their second straight fall on the apparatus. From the start, it appeared that OU would post one of its higher scores on beam this year after Natalie Ratcliff and Kayla Nowak preceded Ferguson and Kelley with a pair of 9.85s, but both Vise and Kristin Smith fell in the final two routines for a team score of 48.875.

The Sooners swept the podium on floor, closing the rotation with five straight scores of 9.9 or higher. Oklahoma picked up career highs from Smith (9.95), Nowak (9.925), Vise (9.925), Ferguson (9.9), while Flanery sealed the win with a 9.9 in the final routine of the night.

WEEK 6 - IOWA STATE | FEB. 12, 2010

NORMAN, Okla. - The University of Oklahoma women's gymnastics program ascended to No. 1 in the country for the first time in program history on Monday and proved why on Friday.

The top-ranked Sooners (9-0, 2-0 Big 12) led wire-to-wire in a 197.250-196.225 victory over No. 16 Iowa State (4-5, 0-2 Big 12) in front of 1,777 fans at Lloyd Noble Center in OU's "Beauty and the Beast" spectacular. The gymnasts shared the floor with the ninth-ranked OU wrestling squad, who improved to 13-1-1 with a 33-3 victory over the visiting Chattanooga Mocs.

"We talked about having intensity from the very beginning and I felt like we definitely came out that way," said head coach K.J. Kindler. "We definitely had our best bar performances of the year, sticking dismounts, hitting those angles and really being detail-oriented."

The Sooners improved to 26-2 in their last 28 home events by sweeping all eight team and individual event honors en route to their highest team tally under Kindler, who improved to 8-0 versus her former squad since she took the OU head coaching position in 2007.

Individually, Jackie Flanery posted her second straight vault title despite serving as OU's leadoff gymnast in the rotation, sharing event honors with anchor Mary Mantle. Hollie Vise remained perfect on the season on bars with her sixth straight win in a tie with Big 12 bars champion Megan Ferguson. Ferguson, Vise and Kristin Smith all shared the event win on beam, while Smith took home her second straight floor title.

Opening the dual meet on vault, Oklahoma opened and closed the rotation with event winning 9.875s from Flanery and Mantle. Paced by the senior duo's shared event title, the Sooners turned in a team tally score of 49.200 to open the dual meet with the event win, as Sara Stone and Natasha Kelley also turned in solid routines with a pair of 9.85s.

OU posted six straight scores of 9.825 or higher on bars and took its second event title of the night with a season-high score of 49.425. It was a full 0.2 of a point higher than any other Oklahoma team score on the apparatus in 2010. The Sooners swept the bars podium behind 9.925s from Vise and Ferguson for the event win, while Kelley (9.9), Brie Olson (9.85), Flanery (9.825) and Kayla Nowak (9.825) were right on their heels.

Oklahoma survived a scare after a fall from the first position on beam with five straight scores of 9.825 or higher. Nowak and Kelley posted routines of 9.825 and 9.85, respectively, while Smith, Vise and Ferguson closed the rotation with back-to-back-to-back 9.9s. The Sooners scored a 49.375 on the apparatus to take a 148.000-147.050 lead into the final event.

The Sooners clinched their highest score since posting a 197.300 in 2004 with a 49.250 on floor. Smith won her second event honor of the night with a 9.925, while Ferguson notched a 9.9. Stone posted a 9.85 in her season debut on floor and Vise was solid with a 9.825.

Oklahoma improved to 41-14-1 in the all-time series against the Cyclones which dates back to 1981.

WEEK 7 - @MISSOURI | FEB. 19, 2010

NORMAN, Okla. - The second-ranked OU women's gymnastics team made it a season sweep of Big 12 opponents during the regular season with a 197.050-195.500 victory at No. 17 Missouri on Friday. The Sooners eclipsed the 197-point barrier for the second consecutive meet for the first time since 2004, scoring a 49.275 or higher in their final three rotations in the win.

OU swept all four team event titles for the second week in a row, while Sara Stone (vault – 9.925), Megan Ferguson (beam – 9.95) and Jackie Flanery (floor – 9.925) took home individual event titles.

The Sooners added another victory to their commanding all-time series lead, which now stands at 48-11. Oklahoma has won each of the last 13 meetings with Mizzou, while tonight's 1.55 margin of victory was the largest in the series since OU posted a 196.125-193.825 victory in Norman in 2007.

"For the first time all season I felt like we really came out and put four solid events together," said head coach K.J. kindler. "We still left a few tenths here and there, with some missed handstands and angles, but had one of our best warm up's of the year and never looked back.

"The enthusiasm we were able to hold throughout the entire meet became contagious, as they fed off of each other. It's what you have to do anytime you go on the road, trying to take the crowd out of it."

Oklahoma trailed for just the second time this season after posting a 49.100 on bars, while Mizzou opened the meet with a 49.150 on vault. The Sooners were 6-of-6 on the apparatus, paced by Hollie Vise's 9.875 from the anchor position. Natasha Kelley preceded Vise's routine with a 9.85, while Brie Olson scored a 9.825 from the second position.

OU quickly overtook the Tigers on the next rotation and never trailed again after a 49.275 on vault, its second highest score on the apparatus this season. Stone won a share of her first individual event title this season with a career-high 9.925 to pace the Sooners.

Oklahoma's first four routines on vault were all 9.825 or higher, as Natasha Kelley (9.9) and Natalie Ratcliff (9.85) joined Stone with career bests.

The Sooners proved why they are considered one of the best floor squads in the country, ending the rotation with five straight scores of 9.8 or higher, capped by Flanery's 9.925 from the anchor position. OU had its first stumble of the night with a fall from the first position, but quickly erased the error as Ferguson and Kayla Nowak got the Sooners back on track with a pair of 9.8s. The senior duo of Vise (9.85) and Kristin Smith (9.9) preceded Flanery as OU had its second best floor tally of the season with a 49.275.

Oklahoma led 147.650-146.400 as Mizzou rebounded from its troubles on bars with a solid score on beam (49.075).

OU ended the dual with a 49.400 on beam, just a tenth of a point shy of its season high on the apparatus. Ratcliff opened the rotation with her highest road score on beam this season with a 9.825, while Kelley (9.85) and Smith (9.875) both posted solid routines.
