AT A GLANCE:

The top-ranked OU women's gymnastics squad hosts No. 16 Iowa State in Oklahoma's annual "Beauty and the Beast" night, competing side-by-side with the ninth-ranked Sooner wrestling squad.

Oklahoma ascended to No. 1 nationally in the latest Troester rankings released Monday, marking the first time in the program's 30-year history that the Sooners have accomplished the feat. OU overtook Alabama in the latest poll, marking the first women's sport at Oklahoma to be ranked No. 1 during the regular season.

OU is 7-0 against the Cyclones under fourth-year head coach K.J. Kindler, who came to Norman after making her head coaching debut at ISU in 2001. Kindler coached the Cyclones for six seasons, leading them to their first Super Six appearance in 2006.

Individually, Megan Ferguson is ranked as the top beam worker in the country with a 9.885 average (tied with Alabama's Ashley Priess), while Hollie Vise and Jackie Flanery hold top five rankings on bars and floor, respectively. ISU's Ashley Kent is the only Cyclone gymnast ranked in the top 25 on any apparatus. Kent currently stands 12th on beam with a season average of 9.835.

The Sooners face 10 squads ranked in the preseason top-25 coaches poll, including three ranked in the top 10.

GYMINFO RANKING SCHEDULE:

Through Feb. 8, the teams are ranked by total season average. Beginning Feb. 15, the ranking is done by Regional Qualifying Score which consists of a team's three highest road scores and the next three highest scores. The high score is subtracted from the six event totals and the remaining amount is divided by five.

KNOW THE FOE

No. 16 Iowa State (4-4, 0-1 Big 12) enters Friday's meet off of a second place quad meet result at Pitt. The Cyclones posted a team tally of 195.125, just edged out by the Panther's 195.175.

ISU has been ranked as high as No. 13 (last three weeks) before dropping to 16th in the latest rankings. Iowa State has not had a freshman compete this season. The Cyclones posted a 195.775 in their last visit to the Lloyd Noble Center at the 2008 Big 12 Championships, finishing second behind the Sooners.

Iowa State has not defeated a team currently ranked in the top 30 this season and is averaging a 195.492 in its three road events this season.

Oklahoma holds a 40-14-1 lead in the all-time series which dates back to 1981. The Sooners have won all seven meetings in the series under fourth-year head coach K.J. Kindler, who coached the Cyclones from 2001-06.

MILESTONE MOMENT

Oklahoma ascended to No. 1 nationally in the latest Troester rankings released Monday, marking the first time in the program's 30-year history that the Sooners have accomplished the feat. OU overtook Alabama in the latest poll, marking the first women's sport at Oklahoma to be ranked No. 1 during the regular season. Women's gymnastics joins baseball, football, men's basketball, men's golf, men's gymnastics, softball and wrestling as the eight OU sports to achieve a No. 1 ranking.

The back-to-back Big 12 Champions are the first conference squad to be ranked No. 1 in the country since Nebraska held the top spot for one week of the 2005 season (Feb. 28, 2005 poll).

REGULAR SEASON SENSATIONS

Oklahoma is 49-6 in the regular season under K.J. Kindler, including a perfect 8-0 mark in 2010. The Sooners went 10-4 during the regular season in 2009, with three of those losses coming on the road (Florida, Nebraska and Alabama).

SENIOR SUCCESS

Senior's Hollie Vise and Jackie Flanery both rank in the top five nationally in the latest individual standings. Vise ranks fourth in the country on bars with individual event titles on the apparatus in every meet this season, while Flanery is ranked fifth on floor with a season-high 9.95 at the Metroplex Challenge.

THAT'S WHY SHE'S AN ALL-AMERICAN

Sophomore All-American and reigning Big 12 Event Specialist of the Week Megan Ferguson is currently ranked as the nation's best beam worker with a season average of 9.885. Ferguson captured the individual event title on the apparatus in last Friday's meet against Nebraska and TWU with a career-high 9.925, while also setting a personal best on floor 9.900 in OU's (8-0, 1-0) tri-meet victory.

It's the first weekly conference honor of Ferguson's career. Ferguson became the third different OU gymnast to garner the award this season, joining Jackie Flanery (Jan. 12) and Hollie Vise (Jan. 26).

HOME SWEET HOME

The Sooners are 25-2 in Norman under fourth-year head coach K.J. Kindler. OU's only two losses at home have come against SEC opponents in Alabama and Arkansas. Top-seeded Alabama knocked off the Sooners en route to the NCAA South Central Regional title in 2008, while OU's loss to Arkansas in the 2009 home opener marked Oklahoma's only regular season home defeat in Kindler's tenure.

Among the 55 home wins since 2000 are notable victories over Auburn, Georgia, Florida, Illinois, Iowa State, Missouri, Nebraska, Penn State, Stanford and West Virginia.

BUT THE ROAD ISN'T BAD EITHER...

The Sooners seek some of the same road success in 2010 that they have exhibited in recent years. On the young season, two of Oklahoma's top three scores have come in road competition, including a 196.650 at No. 25 Illinois. Five of OU's top seven scores (including a season-high 197.175 at TWU) came away from Norman in 2009, a year after five of Oklahoma's top seven scores (including three of the top four and a season-best-tying 196.750 at Arkansas) came on the road. Oklahoma was the only squad in the top 10 to have both of its top two scores from 2009 come in road competition. OU's 197.175-189.600 victory at TWU last season marked its best team score since Jan. 24, 2004 (197.300).

SOONER "FLOOR" COMPETITION

OU posted its highest event score on any apparatus under Kindler last week with a 49.600 on the floor exercise. The Sooners closed the rotation with five scores of 9.9 or higher. Oklahoma picked up career highs from Kristin Smith (9.95), Kayla Nowak (9.925), Hollie Vise (9.925) and Megan Ferguson (9.9), while Flanery sealed the win with a 9.9 in the final routine of the night.

As a result, Oklahoma leads the country with a season average of 49.200 on the apparatus.

NO "I" IN TEAM

OU has found a way to win lately despite the lack of a true all-around presence. Oklahoma's only all-around competitor this season was Kayla Nowak against Illinois, while the Sooners were the only squad ranked in the final 2009 top-15 GymInfo poll without a gymnast in the top-25 all-around rankings.

Nowak was a last-minute addition to the vault lineup at Illinois and placed second in her first collegiate all-around appearance.

MORE ON THE TEAM APPROACH

A different Oklahoma gymnast led the team on each event in last week's victory over Nebraska and TWU. In OU's five meets this season, it has had five different gymnasts post the team's highest score on vault, three on bars, three on beam and two on floor. In all, nine different Oklahoma gymnasts have at least tied for OU's highest score on an event during a meet this season.

DAZZLING DEBUT

Thirty-nine of Oklahoma's 120 routines this season have been performed by freshmen (.325), including exactly half of OU's uneven bars routines (15 of 30). The group is 38-of-39 on the year. Each freshman that has competed has scored at least a 9.8 in one of their routines, while Natasha Kelley has already tallied nine scores of at least 9.85.

BEAM QUEENS

Just like last season's second road meet of the season, the OU beam squad provided its breakout performance of the 2010 campaign in its second road outing at Illinois with a team tally of 49.500 on the apparatus. OU reeled off five straight 9.85s or better after a fall from the first position on beam at Illinois. Vise and Smith shared event honors with 9.95s, while Ferguson (9.9), Kelley (9.85) and Nowak (9.85) completed a sweep of the individual event standings on the apparatus.

Oklahoma's beam tally was its second highest event total on the apparatus under Kindler, just behind OU's 49.525 on beam at TWU on Jan. 17, 2009.

RACKING UP THE TITLES

The Sooners have collected 34 of a possible 40 combined individual and team event titles in 2010, including at least six combined individual and team event wins in each meet. OU has won every team event title on bars and floor in 2010.

COMING FROM BEHIND

OU trailed for the first time after any rotation this season as Illinois opened with a 49.100 on vault, to OU's 49.000 start on bars. The Sooners overtook the Fighting Illini during the next rotation and cruised to their eighth-straight win over Illinois, remaining undefeated in the series and posting the second-largest margin of victory in any meeting between the two programs (+2.255).

IN ELITE COMPANY

The Sooners are one of just six squads to advance to the NCAA Championships every year since 2004, joining Alabama, Florida, Georgia, LSU and Utah on that elite list. OU's six championship appearances in the last six years matches the other three Big 12 programs combined during that period. Nebraska advanced to the NCAA Championships from 2004-07, while Iowa State made back-to-back appearances in 2005 and 2006 under K.J. Kindler.

FOLLOWING THE SOONERS

The OU gymnastics program maintains its own Facebook, YouTube and Twitter accounts, which are updated frequently with all of the latest news about the squad. Links to each of those pages can be found at www.SoonerSports.com, the official site of the Oklahoma Sooners.

PRACTICE MAKES PERFECT

If the old adage rings true, the Sooners should be on top of their game in 2010 as the team recently moved into of the top training gyms in the entire country. OU recently completed a state-of-the-art 7,000 square foot addition and a complete overhaul of the existing Sam Viersen Gymnastics Center for the men's and women's gymnastics squads.

Funded entirely by private donations without the use of any state or university appropriated funds, the project included a complete renovation of the current gym, locker rooms, sports medicine training rooms and the awards recognition room. A new storage area, a reconfiguration of foam and resi pits and an outdoor patio also highlighted the renovation.

STELLAR YEAR IN THE CLASSROOM

Nine OU gymnasts earned 2009 NACGC All-Academic Scholar awards as the Sooners posted their highest GPA since 2004. Oklahoma's nine honorees was third best among teams advancing to last year's NCAA Championship, behind only Alabama (13) and Stanford (10).

CLOSER LOOK AT OKLAHOMA IN 2010

The back-to-back Big 12 Champions opened the 2010 season ranked ninth in the GymInfo preseason coaches poll, the highest ranking of any conference squad. The Sooners return 11 members from last season's group that clinched OU's second straight conference title.

Headlining OU's returnees is sophomore All-American Megan Ferguson. The Olathe, Kan., native capped off her stellar freshman campaign by garnering All-America status on beam at the 2009 NCAA Championships. She became the first freshman in Big 12 history to win multiple event titles at the conference championship (bars and beam).

Other returnees include All-Big 12 selections in Jackie Flanery (floor - 2008), Melanie Root (vault - 2009), Kristin Smith (floor - 2009) and Hollie Vise (bars - 2008, beam - 2008, 2009). The quartet has combined for nine Big 12 Event Specialist of the Week honors in the past two seasons.

Also returning in 2010 are event title winners Mary Mantle (Big 12 Event Specialist of the Week on Feb. 12, 2008, after her vault win at Denver) and Sara Stone (three vault titles in 2009).

This season also marks the final send-off for Julie Kramer, while other returnees include juniors Candace Cindell and Natalie Ratcliff. Ratcliff was a mainstay in the vault and beam lineup a year ago.

OU gymnastics fans also will have their first chance to see Oklahoma's freshman class of Bethany Neubauer, Kayla Nowak, Brie Olson and Nitya Ramaswami. The class was ranked No. 9 in the country by CollegeGymFans.com.

2010 MEET-BY-MEET RECAPS

WEEK 1 - FLORIDA | JAN. 8, 2010

NORMAN, Okla. -- The No. 9 Oklahoma women's gymnastics squad led wire-to-wire in a 196.250-195.275 upset over fourth-ranked Florida in the Sooners' season opener on Friday in front of 1,325 fans at Lloyd Noble Center.

The victory over the Gators marked the highest-ranked opponent that OU has toppled under fourth-year head coach K.J. Kindler.

The Sooners improved to 23-2 in home meets under Kindler behind strong performances from veterans and newcomers alike, as Oklahoma picked up event titles on bars, beam and floor. OU also claimed individual event titles on each of those events as well, as Jackie Flanery (bars and floor), Hollie Vise (bars and beam) and Natasha Kelley (bars) claimed individual honors.

"This team (OU) came out with a whole other confidence that I've never seen before," said Kindler. "They didn't waiver when the door was opening, they didn't hesitate and they jumped in feet first. I was really impressed with that more than anything. They had a lot of confidence tonight."

OU opened the meet with a 48.950 on vault, paced by Mary Mantle's 9.85 from the anchor position. Mantle placed third in the individual standings on the apparatus, behind a pair of 9.875s from UF's Ashanee Dickerson and Maranda Smith. Flanery posted a 9.8 from the first spot, while freshman Bethany Neubauer matched Flanery's score in her first collegiate routine. Oklahoma took the early lead as Florida was forced to count a fall on bars (48.175).

The Sooners increased their lead to 98.125-97.425 through two rotations after a stellar bars set that resulted in the team event title. Flanery, Kelley and Vise all scored 9.85s to sweep the individual event honors for OU. Flanery's bar set marked a career best, while Kelley competed despite suffering a complete ACL tear less than two months ago. Reigning Big 12 bars co-champion Megan Ferguson tallied a 9.825, while Brie Olson scored a 9.8 in her collegiate debut.

Vise picked up her second individual victory of the night on beam (9.9), leading Oklahoma to its second event win of the evening. OU outscored the Gators 49.025-48.875 on the apparatus, as Ferguson (9.875) and Kelley (9.8) both posted solid routines.

The Sooners sealed the meet victory with an event-winning floor score of 49.100 - their third straight score of 49.000-plus on the night. Flanery picked up her second event title of the night (9.875), freshman Kayla Nowak (9.85) shared second in her debut, while Vise scored a 9.825 in her first collegiate routine on the apparatus.

"We hit 23-of-24 routines which is phenomenal for your first competition," said Kindler. "Now, there are always things we can do to improve, but I thought overall it was an excellent first meet. The freshmen and Natasha were phenomenal. They hit eight routines, out of eight, and were some of our highest scores. They definitely brought a level of confidence to our team.

Oklahoma improved to 42-6 in the regular season under Kindler.

WEEK 3 - ILLINOIS | JAN. 23, 2010

CHAMPAIGN, ILL. - The second-ranked University of Oklahoma women's gymnastics squad improved to 3-0 on the year with a 196.650-194.425 win at No. 25 Illinois (3-3) on Saturday in Champaign, Ill. The Sooners improved to 7-0 all-time against the Fighting Illini, while tonight's +2.225 margin of victory was the second largest in the series.

OU won team titles in its final three events, including a season-high 49.500 on beam en route to its best team score since Feb. 27, 2009. The Sooners sealed the win with a pair of 9.95s on the apparatus from Hollie Vise and Kristin Smith in Oklahoma's final two routines of the evening.

"Instead of thinking about how they can stay on the equipment, I think we have adjusted the mindset to thinking about how confident they are and how they can nail their routine," said fourth-year head coach K.J. Kindler on OU's beam squad. "I was really encouraged by their mental strength on beam. Natalie (Ratcliff) is a phenomenal beam worker, but she missed tonight. The rest of the lineup rallied and wasn't going to give it away, which is very encouraging."

Freshman Kayla Nowak finished second in the all-around with a 39.050 in her first collegiate all-around performance, marking the first time this season the Sooners have had a gymnast compete all four events.

OU opened the dual meet with a team tally of 49.000 on the uneven bars in the event win. Ranked first in the nation on the apparatus entering the weekend, the Sooners hit six-of-six routines, paced by 9.85s from event winners Natasha Kelley and Vise. Jackie Flanery and Brie Olson both scored 9.775s on the apparatus for a share of third place. OU trailed after a rotation for the first time this season as Illinois scored a 49.100 on vault.

The Sooners posted four scores of 9.8 or higher on vault for a 49.050 team tally. Brie Olson led the way with a career-high 9.85 and a share of second in the individual standings. Jackie Flanery and Mary Mantle each scored a 9.825, while Sara Stone posted a 9.8.

Oklahoma overtook the Fighting Illini 98.050-97.025 at the midway point after the home squad was forced to count a fall on bars.

Flanery (9.9), Smith (9.85) Vise (9.825) and Mary Mantle (9.775) all posted season bests on floor en route to a team score of 49.100 on the apparatus. Flanery won her third-straight event title on the apparatus this season, while Smith and Vise finished third and fifth, respectively.

The Sooners posted their highest beam score in 14 meets (49.500) after reeling off five straight 9.85s or better after a fall from the first position. Vise and Smith shared event honors with 9.95s, while Ferguson (9.9), Kelley (9.85) and Nowak (9.85) completed a sweep of the individual event standings on the apparatus.

"I thought we came out a bit lethargic and really didn't stick any landings on vault or bars, where we entered the meet with a goal of hitting at least 50-percent of those routines," said Kindler. "We finally started gaining some momentum on floor, where I felt that Mary (Mantle), Hollie (Vise), Kristin (Smith) and Jackie (Flanery) all performed their best routines of the season."

WEEK 4 - METROPLEX CHALLENGE | JAN. 30, 2010

DALLAS - The second-ranked University of Oklahoma women's gymnastics squad improved to 6-0 on the season with a quad meet win over Alaska-Anchorage, N.C. State and TWU at the 2010 Metroplex Challenge in Dallas on Saturday.

OU swept all four team event titles and improved to 47-6 in the regular season under fourth-year head coach K.J. Kindler after individual titles on bars (Hollie Vise – 9.925), beam (Vise – 9.925) and floor (Jackie Flanery – 9.95).

The Sooners were forced to count their first fall of the season on any apparatus with a pair of falls on beam, resulting in a season-low team score of 196.100. N.C. State (194.875) placed second, TWU (191.225) third and Alaska-Anchorage rounded out the quad meet in fourth (188.9).

"We had more mistakes tonight than we have had all year long, but we know mistakes are going to happen," said Kindler. "Kayla (Nowak), as a freshman, followed every single mistake on the three events we had and wow... turned it up a notch. That is impressive to see a freshman follow up a mistake and handle it the way she did. It was very mature and it was exciting to see.

"I think our team, since they haven't been put in that situation this year, handled it well. Obviously, we're looking for a better result. We'll look to up our game next week."

Oklahoma opened the meet with a season-high 49.075 on vault, paced by Sara Stone's season-high 9.875 that garnered individual event honors for the sophomore. OU received a pair of 9.85s from Brie Olson and Mary Mantle. Olson's routine matched last week's career high on the apparatus, while Mantle tied her season best performance. Natasha Kelley made her collegiate debut on vault and scored a 9.775, just two months after the Katy, Texas, native suffered a complete tear of her right ACL.

The Sooners matched their season high on bars with a 49.225 team tally, capped off by Vise's second-straight 9.925 on the apparatus in the individual win. OU survived a scare after freshman Brie Olson fell on her mount in the squad's second routine on bars, posting four straight routines of 9.825 or higher to close the rotation. The Sooners tallied a pair of 9.825s from Nowak and reigning Big 12 bars champ Megan Ferguson, while Kelley scored a 9.875 prior to Vise's routine from the anchor position.

OU counted its first fall of the season after slip-up's from Natalie Ratcliff and Kristin Smith in the first and last routines on beam, respectively. Oklahoma posted a season-low 48.600 on the apparatus, marking its first sub-49 score on beam this season. Vise paced the Sooners with her second 9.925 of the night, also resulting in her second event honor. Ferguson tallied a 9.85, while Nowak had a 9.8.

Flanery received a 10.00 from one floor judge en route to a 9.95 on the apparatus in the event win. Vise continued her spectacular night with a career-high 9.875 on the apparatus, while Smith rebounded from her fall on beam to score a 9.85.

WEEK 5 - NEBRASKA AND TWU | FEB. 5, 2010

NORMAN, Okla. - The second-ranked OU women's gymnastics squad remained undefeated on the year (8-0, 1-0 Big 12) with a wire-to-wire triangular victory over No. 10 Nebraska (6-1) and TWU (3-5) in front of 1,405 fans at Lloyd Noble Center on Friday.

The Sooners scored a season-high 196.825 despite counting a fall on beam, outdistancing Big 12 rival Nebraska and TWU, who posted scores of 196.225 and 192.575, respectively.

OU won team event titles on vault, bars and floor and swept all four individual titles with event wins on vault (Jackie Flanery - tied with a 9.9), bars (Hollie Vise - 9.9), beam (Megan Ferguson - 9.925) and floor (Kristin Smith - 9.95).

The Sooners didn't compete an all-arounder for the fourth meet this season, while a different OU gymnast led the team on each event.

Oklahoma had to outmatch a Husker squad that also posted a season high team tally on Friday and the result was in question until the final routine. After counting a fall on beam that tightened the team standings, OU closed the meet with a season-high 49.600 on floor, marking the Sooners highest event total under fourth-year head coach K.J. Kindler.

Oklahoma opened with a season-high 49.375 on vault, easily eclipsing its previous high of 49.075 at last week's Metroplex Challenge. Flanery (9.9), Natasha Kelley (9.875) and Brie Olson (9.875) set career highs, while Melanie Root (9.85) and Sara Stone (9.875) posted season bests. Mary Mantle turned in a 9.825 from the anchor position as the entire Sooner vault lineup scored at least a 9.825.

"I really thought that vault and floor were some of our best performances of the year," said Kindler. "In particular, on vault the way we started out with Jackie Flanery. That was actually our best vault in the lineup and she nailed it. It was a great start for our team on that event. We kind of got on a roll from that."

The Sooners started a bit slow on bars, before Kelley and Vise capped off the rotation with scores of 9.85 and 9.9, respectively. It was Vise's fifth straight win on the apparatus dating back to Oklahoma's season opener against Florida. OU posted a 48.975 on the apparatus, marking the first time this season the Sooners haven't scored a 49-plus on the event.

Ferguson (9.925) and Kelley (9.875) finished one-two in the individual standings on beam, but the Sooners were forced to count their second straight fall on the apparatus. From the start, it appeared that OU would post one of its higher scores on beam this year after Natalie Ratcliff and Kayla Nowak preceded Ferguson and Kelley with a pair of 9.85s, but both Vise and Kristin Smith fell in the final two routines for a team score of 48.875.

The Sooners swept the podium on floor, closing the rotation with five straight scores of 9.9 or higher. Oklahoma picked up career highs from Smith (9.95), Nowak (9.925), Vise (9.925), Ferguson (9.9), while Flanery sealed the win with a 9.9 in the final routine of the night.
