No. 6/4 Oklahoma (12-3, 0-0 Big 12)

SOONERS

Due to cold temperatures and snowy conditions in the forecast, the No. 6/4 Oklahoma softball team will not be hosting its home opener this weekend. Instead, the team will travel to Houston, Texas, for four games at the Scrap Yard. The Sooners will play two games each on Saturday and Sunday.

The weekend begins against IPFW. The Sooners have never faced the Mastodons, but they are 6-5 all-time against teams from The Summit League. OU has won four of its last five games against Summit teams dating to 1991, including a 9-1 win in six innings over Western Illinois last season (3/7).

Oklahoma then faces North Texas, against whom it is a perfect 25-0. Not only is the 25-0 record Oklahoma's best undefeated mark against another team, the 25 straight wins are the second longest active streak against one opponent by OU.

OU'S BEST UNDEFEATED MARKS

Team	Record
1. North Texas	25-0
2. Stephen F. Austin	12-0
3. Central Arkansas	7-0
Kent State	7-0
North Carolina	7-0

1. Wichita State	30	43-7 (.860)
2. North Texas	25	25-0 (1.000)
3. Iowa State	21	68-28 (.708)
4. Creighton	15	16-11 (.593)
5. Stephen F. Austin	12	12-0 (1.000)

Oklahoma and North Texas have met every season since 2004. Last year, Kelsey Stevens was just three outs away from her first no-hitter as a Sooner, but still managed a one-hitter as OU shut out North Texas, 3-0, on April 23.

Stevens allowed just two baserunners during the entire contest, the first of which was a walk to Jordan Terry to lead off the second inning. From there, Stevens retired the next 15 batters she faced until Spencer Ferrell singled to left field on the first pitch of the seventh inning. Then-junior Georgia Casey hit a two-run home run in the fifth inning, while then-senior Brittany Williams added a solo shot in the sixth.

CHAMBERLAIN'S STATUS TO BE DETERMINED

After suffering a head injury in OU's game against Loyola Marymount on Feb. 21, senior Lauren Chamberlain's status for this weekend's games is still to be determined. She will likely miss Saturday's games, but could return Sunday if she passes all concussion protocols.

CHAMBERLAIN MARCHING TOWARD HR RECORD

With 79 career home runs, senior Lauren Chamberlain is just 11 home runs away from tying the all-time home run record of 90 and 12 away from breaking it. She is currently tied for sixth.

HR	Player, School	Years
1.	90 Stacey Nuvevan, UCLA	'97-'99, '01-'02
2.	87 Stacie Chambers, Arizona	'08-'11
3.	85 Leah Braatz, Arizona	'94-'95, '97-'98
	85 Laura Espinoza, Arizona	'92-'95
5.	83 Danyele Gomez, La.-Lafayette	'03-'06
6.	79 Kristen Rivera, Washington	'02-'05
79	Lauren Chamberlain, Oklahoma	'12-pres.

Numbers to Know

9 - Wins needed by head coach Patty Gasso to reach 1,000 in her OU career.

12 - Home runs needed by Lauren Chamberlain to set the all-time NCAA Division I record for career HR.

THUMB INJURY TO KEEP CASEY OUT

Senior infielder Georgia Casey is expected to miss significant time after an injury suffered during Oklahoma's season opener. On Feb. 5, Casey suffered a tear of her ulnar collateral ligament in her left thumb during a tag play at second base. Casey had surgery on Feb. 12; one week after the injury occurred. The timetable for recovery is 8-12 weeks from the date of the surgery.

A three-time All-Big 12 honoree, Casey has a career batting average of .346 with 29 home runs and 121 runs batted in. Her on-base percentage of .459 ranks eighth in school history, while her .608 slugging percentage is ninth. Casey also ranks 10th at OU with 139 career runs scored, 38 doubles and 95 walks drawn.

A CLASS OF THEIR OWN

The 2015 campaign marks the final seasons for five Oklahoma seniors: Georgia Casey, Lauren Chamberlain, Callie Parsons, Shelby Pendley and Jessica Vest. Since they stepped on campus three years ago (Pendley transferred to OU as a sophomore in 2013), no team in the country has a better win percentage than the OU seniors and only Florida has more wins.

Best Winning Percentage Since 2012 (through 2/22)

Team	Win Pct.	Wins	Losses	Ties
1. Oklahoma	.853	174	30	0
2. Florida	.839	177	34	0

TAKING ON THE TOP 25

Though early in the season, Oklahoma has already played one of the toughest schedules so far. Through Feb. 22, OU has played eight games against ranked teams this year; only Florida State (9) has played more. In addition, OU's five wins against ranked teams are the most in the country.

CHAMBERLAIN, PENDLEY DUBBED 'RUTH AND GEHRIG'

In a Feb. 2 article on ESPNW.com, writer Graham Hays referred to OU's Lauren Chamberlain and Shelby Pendley as the Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig of college softball.

"In Chamberlain and Pendley, Oklahoma has the closest combination college softball might see to Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig," Hays wrote. "One is the face and voice of a sport, the other the quiet embodiment of excellence. Good luck stopping them."

Chamberlain and Pendley rank first and second nationally among active players in career home runs (through 2/22).

Player	Team	Fr.	So.	Jr.	Sr.	Total
Lauren Chamberlain	Oklahoma	30	30	12	7	79
Shelby Pendley	Oklahoma	19	22	19	3	63
Lauren Haeger	Florida	14	18	20	6	58

Additionally, Chamberlain and Pendley have combined for more career HR than any other teammates in the nation.

Players	Team	Total
Chamberlain (79), Pendley (63)	Oklahoma	142
Stephany LaRosa (48), Ally Carda (38)	UCLA	86
Amber Freeman (46), Haley Steele (39)	Arizona State	85

IN THE POLLS

Oklahoma is ranked sixth and fourth in the NFCA and USA Softball polls, respectively. OU has been ranked sixth or better for the last five NFCA polls and fourth or better in the last five USA polls.

Oklahoma is the only program to be ranked every week of the NFCA poll. The Sooners entered the rankings at No. 18 in the first poll on January 24, 1995. They have not dropped out since -- 293 straight polls. Likewise, the Sooners have been ranked every week of the USA Softball poll, dating back to the 2003 season when they opened at No. 11.

SOONERS FINISH 3-2 AT MARY NUTTER CLASSIC

Facing its toughest weekend slate of the young season, Oklahoma went 3-2 at the prestigious Mary Nutter Collegiate Classic.

Trailing No. 13/110 Arizona 4-0 after five innings in the opener on Feb. 19, OU rallied for four runs over the final two innings, including a game-tying homer by freshman Nicole Pendley in the top of the seventh, but Arizona's Kellie Fox hit a walkoff homer in the bottom of the seventh to win it 5-4. Oklahoma responded later that night with a 10-1, five-inning win over San Diego State to even their tournament record. OU used a pair of four-run innings in the first and fourth to earn the win.

Oklahoma again tried to rally in a ranked matchup as the Sooners found themselves down 6-2 to No. 8/7 Georgia on Feb. 20, but OU's three-run rally came up just short in a 6-5 loss.

OU closed the weekend with a pair of wins on Feb. 21, starting with a 7-3 win over No. 11/9 Kentucky. The Sooners scored all seven runs in the first three innings, highlighted by a two-run homer from Paige Parker, and Kelsey Stevens threw a one-hitter. The weekend finished with a 9-0, five-inning win over Loyola Marymount, highlighted by a six-run second inning.

SOONERS GO 4-1 AT LITTLEWOOD CLASSIC

Oklahoma went 4-1 at the Littlewood Classic. In the opener, Oklahoma scored at least three runs every inning in a 14-4, five-inning win over Boston. It was the team's sixth straight win by at least seven runs, tying the longest streak in school history (Feb. 12-20, 2005).

The Sooners then held off No. 15/15 Washington, 8-7. OU saw a 6-0 lead evaporate in a six-run sixth for UW, but Oklahoma responded with two runs in the top of the seventh.

OU went to 8-0 after a 7-2 win over Illinois State, which marked the team's eighth straight game scoring at least 7 runs, the longest such streak in school history.

Lauren Chamberlain's 78th career home run sparked the Sooners' four-run sixth inning as they rallied for a 5-1 victory at No. 21/21 Arizona State. However, ASU got revenge as Bethany Kemp hit a walkoff grand slam to hand Oklahoma its first loss of the year in an 8-4 setback.

The team's 9-0 start to the season was the seventh best undefeated run to begin the year in program history.

Parker struck out a career-high nine batters, seven of which were swinging, and did not allow a single Rainbow Wahine player to reach base. She needed only 69 pitches to record the first perfect game by a Sooner since Keilani Ricketts did it against Kansas on March 30, 2012.

SOONERS START 5-0 IN HAWAII

After a perfect weekend in Hawaii, Oklahoma started 5-0 for the 11th time in school history, 10 of which have come under head coach Patty Gasso.

OU opened with a 9-2 win over No. 25/RV DePaul thanks to a five-run fifth inning in which the Sooners entered trailing 2-1.

Lauren Chamberlain then homered twice in a 17-0, five-inning rout of Saint Mary's. It was her 15th career multi-home run game and included her fourth career grand slam. It was OU's highest run total since an 18-3, five-inning win over Liberty on March 7, 2014.

Shelby Pendley struck out a career-high 10 batters in a 7-0 win over Hawaii before the Sooners got their second win over DePaul with an 11-3 win. In addition to Parker's perfect game in the win over Hawaii in the title game, freshman Nicole Pendley homered twice in the win.

THREE SOONERS ON USA SOFTBALL TOP 50 LIST

Lauren Chamberlain, Shelby Pendley and Kelsey Stevens were each named to the Top 50 Watch List for the 2015 USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year Award.

Oklahoma is one of five schools, and the only Big 12 team, to have at least three student-athletes on the list. Arizona led all schools with four selections. The Sooners on the list are looking to become the second player in OU history to win the award as former Sooner Keilani Ricketts was a two-time winner in 2012 and 2013.

SOONERS PICKED TO WIN BIG 12 AGAIN

For the third season in a row, and the sixth time in the last seven years, Oklahoma has topped the Big 12 Coaches' Preseason Poll. The Sooners received six of the seven first-place votes. Coaches are not allowed to vote for their own team. The Sooners led their fellow Big 12 teams with 36 points, while Baylor received the seventh first-place vote and ranked second with 30 points. Texas was slotted third by the coaches with 27 points, followed by Oklahoma State (19), Kansas (17) and a tie between Texas Tech and Iowa State with nine points each.

OKLAHOMA TO BE SHOWCASED ON TV 13 TIMES

The University of Oklahoma softball team is scheduled to have 13 of its games televised during the 2015 season. Of those contests, seven are assigned to a national audience, while the other six will be shown regionally courtesy of Sooner Sports TV. Specific networks for Sooner Sports TV games will be announced at a later date, as will ESPN3's NCAA Division I softball schedule. Other Oklahoma home games not currently scheduled to be televised may be streamed online at SoonerSports.TV, but dates have yet to be determined.

A LOOK AT THE 2015 SCHEDULE

In 2015, the Sooners are scheduled to face 13 teams that reached the postseason last year, including five that advanced to the Super Regionals and two of the other seven teams that made it to the WCWS along with OU. The schedule features eight teams ranked in the NFCA preseason poll and two more that were receiving votes.

EIGHT HIGH SCHOOLERS TO PLAY FOR OU IN 2016

Seven high school seniors have signed NLI's to play for the Sooners in 2016: outfielder Fale Aviu (Oceanside, Calif.), pitcher Jayden Chestnut (Mustang, Okla.), infielder Caleigh Clifton (Wayne, Okla.), pitcher Brittany Finney (Wichita, Kan.), infielder Shay Knighten (Buena Park, Calif.), infielder Kylie Lundberg (Lakewood, Calif.) and infielder Sydney Romero (San Diego, Calif.). In addition, outfielder Raegan Rogers (Blanchard, Okla.) has agreed to an enrollment commitment.

Among the signees, Romero was chosen as one of 17 athletes named to the USA Softball Junior Women's National Team, which will compete in the summer of 2015.

BIG 12 PLAYERS OF THE WEEK

Oklahoma has had two players win weekly awards from the Big 12 this season as Lauren Chamberlain has been a two-time Player of the Week and Paige Parker has won Pitcher of the Week once.

Feb. 10

Chamberlain hit .500 (6-12) with three home runs, 12 RBI, nine runs scored and nine walks. Her .714 on-base percentage and 1.417 slugging percentage both led the team.

In winning her first career award, Parker dominated in the circle as she went 2-0 with a save and did not allow a run in 11.2 innings. She struck out 20 batters and walked just one while giving up only two hits. Opponents combined to post a .054 batting average against her. The highlight of Parker's weekend came in her second collegiate start as she threw the ninth perfect game in Oklahoma history.

Feb. 17

Chamberlain hit .533 (8-15), with seven runs scored, eight hits, three home runs, nine runs batted in and five walks. She slugged 1.133 and got on base at a clip of .650.

Now in her 21st season at the University of Oklahoma, head coach Patty Gasso has molded the OU softball program into a national power and permanently placed herself among the elite college softball coaches in the country as evident by the selection to the 2012 NFCA Hall of Fame class.

The Sooners have reached the Women's College World Series nine times during her tenure, and in the process, advanced to the postseason in each one of her seasons. The WCWS run began in 2000 when her team won the NCAA National Championship in OU's first appearance and continued through the 2013 campaign when the team won its second national championship, becoming just the fifth program to win multiple national titles.

With 24 seasons as a head coach to her name, Gasso has a career collegiate coaching record of 1152-358-3 (.762) and holds an overall record of 991-299-2 (.768) at the University of Oklahoma. She has won more Big 12 games (259-81) than any coach in the league's history and has twice as many wins as any other coach in OU history. Gasso's Sooner teams have finished second or higher 15 different times since the inception of the Big 12 in 1996. They have won over 76 percent of their Big 12 contests, and OU has claimed seven Big 12 regular season and four championship titles under her direction.

Numerous Sooner players have prospered under Gasso's tutelage and garnered national, regional and conference recognition. Keilani Ricketts was the two-time USA Softball National Player of the Year in 2012 and 2013, becoming just the third player in history to win more than once. Gasso has also directed 47 All-Americans, 102 All-Region honorees and 130 all-conference selections. In the Big 12 era, eight Sooners have been named Big 12 Player of the Year a total of nine times, three have been selected as Big 12 Freshman of the Year, two as Big 12 Pitcher of the Year and one as Big 12 Newcomer. In 2010, Amber Flores became the first player in league history to earn Player of the Year honors twice.

The OU softball success under Gasso has also spilled over into the classroom where the Sooners have been honored with 98 academic all-conference honors. Seven of those have gone on to become Academic All-Americans, including Lana Moran, the 2000 Academic All-American of the Year.

Gasso and her staff have consistently been recognized for their efforts on and off the field. The staff was awarded three consecutive Speedline/NFCA Midwest Region Coaching Staff of the Year awards from 1999-2001 and received the national honor in 2000 and 2013. Gasso and staff have claimed the Midwest honor in six of their 18 seasons with the most recent award coming in 2012. In addition, Gasso has been named the Big 12 Coach of the Year in 1996, 1999, 2000, 2009, 2012, 2013 and 2014.

Personal

Full name is Kelsey LeeAnn Arnold ... daughter of Darin and Tracy Arnold ... has one brother, Darin Jr. ... father, Darin, played football at Northeastern Oklahoma A&M ... mother, Tracy, competed in track and field at Northeastern Oklahoma A&M ... chose OU over Oklahoma State and Tulsa

Why Oklahoma?

"I chose the University of Oklahoma because it has always been a dream of mine. What I look forward to accomplishing at the University of Oklahoma is majoring in the medical field and winning another national championship. God has blessed me with an amazing opportunity and I am hoping to do the best with it."

Coach Gasso Says:

"Kelsey Arnold was just a tremendous, all-around athlete in high school; she played about every sport. As a softball athlete, she's going to be a very versatile for us. She could play a corner position, she could play middle of the field, and she could play the outfield. I've seen her play all positions and collegiately she could play any of them, at our level. She has good power, but she also has great speed, so as a defense you don't know what you're going to get with her. She could lay down a bunt at any time, hit the ball into a gap for extra bases and she's got the power to hit it out. She's going to be someone that we're looking at for the top of the lineup. She's a playmaker, but also could be a game changer."

Why Oklahoma?

"The campus felt very welcoming and homely. Oklahoma has a great softball program. I look forward to representing the University of Oklahoma and to help bring them another national championship home. Most of all I look forward to earning a degree."

Coach Gasso Says:

"Destinie Lookout is a local product who will bring a lot of power. She has a very intimidating swing and never gets cheated at the plate. What I like about her in high school is that she plays third and she can pitch, so she's athletic enough to do what she needs to do to help her team win. But what she's going to be known for is an absolutely fierce bat."

Why Oklahoma?

"I chose Oklahoma because it feels like home to me. The atmosphere that Coach Gasso, Coach Lombardi and Coach MacKay have created is one that I feel comfortable in, yet I know that I will be pushed to accomplish great things. While at Oklahoma, I know I will receive a great education while trying to accomplish goals that I have set for the future. I am proud to call myself a Sooner."

Coach Gasso Says:

"Paige Parker is bringing the lefty back into the program. I think she'll make an immediate impact as a freshman on the mound. She has such a high ceiling and I'm really excited about her future here. She is a hard-throwing lefty who can move it well, change speeds and can be a difference maker at the plate. She will remind fans of another lefty All-American we're all familiar with."

Personal

Daughter of Jerry and Jeri Pendley ... has one brother, Matthew, and one sister, Shelby ... sister, Shelby, is a senior on the team ... uncle, Ben, played baseball at New Mexico State

Why Oklahoma?

"I chose Oklahoma to simply compete at something I love doing, at the highest level. Along the journey I plan to excel in a career that interests me, improve my softball skills, learn life lessons, make lifetime memories, create a family bond with my teammates, but most of all win a national championship. The excitement I have to be a part of team like Oklahoma is unreal and I will work hard to leave a name for myself in the program. Lastly I have been given the opportunity that most siblings are not blessed with, and that is to play on the same college team as my sister. This is a once in a life time experience that I will make the best of."

Coach Gasso Says:

"Nicole Pendley is going to be a fun player to watch. She's a triple threat: she's a slapper, she can lay down a bunt and she can hit for power. She will cause havoc for opposing defenses. She has a strong arm and has good speed in the outfield. She's another very good athlete in this class."

Personal

Full name is Lea Katherine Wodach ... daughter of Jim and Adele Wodach ... chose OU over Stanford, Cal, San Diego State and San Diego

Why Oklahoma?

"I headed to Oklahoma after visiting several other schools and had no idea what to expect. Little did I know that after I left, I would feel like that was my "home" and I immediately knew that that is where I belonged. There is such a strong sense of unity and chemistry among the coaches and players and I was eager to be a part of it. I knew I couldn't miss out on the opportunity to play with such an incredible amount of talent and to be coached by several great coaches. I would love to continue the winning tradition that the team has built. And of course, there wouldn't be anything more miraculous than winning a national title."

Coach Gasso Says:

"Lea just has a very athletic look behind the plate. She has a very strong arm and she's agile behind the plate. She is going to be a very good leader; she has good knowledge of the game. She's going to be someone that will handle pitchers very well and get the best out of them. I think offensively, she's such a strong athlete that I think she's going to add some good power to the lineup"
