WILDCATS' NEXT GAMES

Charleston Southern at ACU (Tuesday, Nov. 22, 2016 • Abilene, Texas)

ACU at Oklahoma (Friday, Nov. 25, 2016 • Norman, Okla.)

ABILENE – The Wildcats won't take a break during the Thanksgiving Week holiday, instead hosting Charleston Southern University at 7 p.m. Tuesday before venturing north to face the Oklahoma Sooners at 2 p.m. Friday.

Both games will be heard on KTLT 98.1 FM The Ticket, and Friday's game will be able to be seen on Fox Sports Oklahoma. Tuesday night's home game will be carried live on acusports.com.

The Wildcats enter the Thanksgiving week coming off a huge 65-57 road win last Thursday night at New Hampshire. ACU jumped out to a 34-17 halftime lead, pushed the lead to as many as 26 points early in the second half and then held off a furious New Hampshire rally to take the win and improve to 2-0 on the season for the second straight season and third time in head coach Joe Golding's six seasons.

The Wildcats and Charleston Southern have never met on the basketball floor, although ACU and Charleston Southern do have a connection in that current ACU women's basketball coach Julie Goodenough coached at CSU in her last stop before becoming ACU's head coach. Tuesday's game is also the first game of an in-season home-and-home series between the Wildcats and the Buccaneers with ACU going to Charleston, S.C., on Saturday, Dec. 3, for th return game.

ACU and Oklahoma have met twice prior to Friday's game with the Sooners holding a 2-0 series edge. The Sooners won the first meeting the teams, 83-59, on Dec. 1, 1969, and then blew out the Wildcats, 110-61, on Dec. 6, 1982, in a game that saw the late Sooner great, Wayman Tisdale, pour in 51 points (fourth-best in school history) on a still-standing single-game OU record 22 field goals.

WILDCATS' LAST GAME

ACU 65, New Hampshire 57 (Thursday, Nov. 17,, 2016 • Durham, N.H.)

DURHAM, N.H. – The growth of a program is usually measured in baby steps. The Abilene Christian Wildcats, however, took a huge leap forward Thursday night with a 65-57 win over New Hampshire in Lundholm Gymnasium.

The Wildcats are now 2-0 on the season for the second straight season and third time in head coach Joe Golding's six seasons, while New Hampshire falls to 2-1. ACU never trailed in the contest against New Hampshire, which returns the bulk of a team that won 20 games last season and was picked to finish second this season in the America East Conference.

UNH – also nicknamed the Wildcats – entered the game off a 57-52 win at Temple on Tuesday, but were never really in Thursday night's game. ACU jumped on New Hampshire early, jumping out to a 15-5 lead in the first nine minutes of the game, despite starting guard Jaylen Franklin and starting center Hayden Howell being saddled with two fouls apiece and spending significant minutes on the bench.

ACU's lead grew to as many as 21 points late in the first half (33-12) as it compensated for the loss of two starters with eight first-half points from Jovan Crnic and solid contributions off the bench from Hayden Farquhar (seven points, four rebounds), Isaiah Tripp (three points and solid defense), and freshman point guard Payten Ricks, who scored three points and had one rebound in 10 turnover-free minutes in place of Franklin.

ACU's lead grew to as many as 26 points in the second half (53-27) before the Wildcats went absolutely cold from the field and the free throw line, allowing New Hampshire to creep back into the contest. After the Wildcats pushed their lead to a game-high, they went 1 for 10 from the field and 1 for 8 from the free throw line, allowing UNH to get back in the game with a 22-3 run that cut the ACU lead to 56-49 with 2:24 to play.

But the Wildcats were clutch down the stretch, hitting their only field goal attempt and hitting 6 of 8 free throws in the final 76 seconds to secure the victory.

ACU NOTES

- ACU's win over New Hampshire snapped a 20-game non-conference road losing streak (true road games), dating all the way back to Nov. 18, 2011, when the Wildcats beat Texas-Permian Basin in Odessa in Golding's first season as the ACU head coach. That was two years before ACU would make the move to NCAA Division I affiliation.

- The win represents the first true non-conference road win for ACU since it began the four-year transition from NCAA Division II affiliation to NCAA Division I status.

HEAD COACH JOE GOLDING

Former Abilene Christian letterman and assistant basketball coach Joe Golding is at the start of his sixth season as the head men's basketball coach at his alma mater.

Last year, the Wildcats showed a marked improvement, finishing the 2015-16 season at 13-18 overall and 8-10 in the Southland Conference. ACU finished seventh in the league and would have qualified for the conference's post-season tournament if it had been eligible. The 2016-17 season will serve as ACU's final season of the four-year transition period from NCAA Division II status to full NCAA Division I membership.

ACU's eight wins in conference play doubled their output of Southland victories in 2014-15 when they finished 4-14.

The Wildcats were led in 2015-16 by freshman guard Jaylen Franklin, who led the team in scoring, setting an ACU single-season freshman scoring record with 486 points. Franklin was voted the Southland Conference Freshman of the Year and was the national runner-up in fan voting as the College Court Madness Mid-Major National Freshman of the Year.

ACU also returns sophomore Jaren Lewis, whose half-court buzzer-beater against New Orleans late in the season provided the season's signature moment.

In 2014-15, in the program's second season at the NCAA Division I level, the Wildcats finished 10-21 overall, but doubled their number of Southland Conference wins, going from two in 2013-14 to four in 2014-15.

Despite the final record, ACU made several strides during the 2014-15 campaign, not the least of which was winning the championship at the Continental Tires Las Vegas Classic with wins over South Carolina State and Arkansas-Pine Bluff. ACU won just two games against NCAA Division I opponents in 2013-14, but came away with seven NCAA Division I wins in 2014-15, including an impressive 72-61 home win over Sacramento State of the Big West Conference.

The Wildcats also started Southland Conference play 3-0 with home wins over Central Arkansas and Nicholls and a solid 95-81 road win over Northwestern State in Natchitoches, La. That win snapped a 20-game road losing streak dating back to the end of the 2012-13 season, ACU's final season at the NCAA Division II level.

In the Wildcats' first season at the NCAA Division I level (2013-14), Golding led ACU to an 11-20 mark against one of the toughest schedules in the nation. The Wildcats hit the road to play Duquesne, St. Bonaventure, Maryland, Iowa, TCU, Xavier and Towson all in the season's first month.

The Wildcats were 2-12 in Southland Conference play, but lost four games by four points or less and another three games by eight points or less. ACU also led the Terrapins of Maryland through the game's first 28 minutes before finally falling to the 2002 NCAA national champion.

Golding's Wildcats won 12 games for the second consecutive year in 2012-13, but were 6-2 against non-conference teams and improved on their standing within the Lone Star Conference. And even though the 2012-13 squad posted the same scoring average (71.5 ppg) as Golding's first ACU team, the Wildcats became much better overall at shooting (.460) and rebounding (35.5) while reducing their number of turnovers.

ACU finished its final year as a NCAA D-II program ranked 14th in 3-point field goal percentage (.404) and 23rd in rebounding margin (+5.8) thanks to efforts of seniors Eric Lawton and Steven Werner. Lawton, who averaged 17.3 points and 4.5 assists per game, was voted second team all-Lone Star Conference and earned the Wildcats' first and only Newcomer of the Year award. He also ranked seventh nationally with a .459 (67-146) 3-point field goal percentage.

Before returning to Abilene, Golding coached the previous three seasons for head coach Steve Shields at Arkansas-Little Rock, helping the Trojans to the Sun Belt Conference title and an appearance in the NCAA Division I national tournament. In addition to his normal coaching duties – which included working with the UALR guards – Golding was the Trojan's recruiting coordinator.

Golding joined the UALR coaching staff on July 1, 2008, bringing with him nine years of coaching experience at the junior college and high school levels.

Prior to joining the Trojans, Golding spent three seasons (2005-08) as the top assistant to head coach Jason Copeland at Abilene Christian, where his primary duties included recruiting, scouting and on-floor coaching. A former point guard at ACU from 1994-98, he was also responsible for coaching the Wildcat guards.

In 2007-08, Golding helped guide the Wildcats to a 20-9 record, marking the program's first 20-win season since the 1998-99 campaign. The 2007-08 ACU squad qualified for the Lone Star Conference Tournament for the first time since 1998, Golding's senior season. In addition, ACU had three guards earn all-LSC South Division honors in Corwin Ragland, Dejan Sencanski and Brandon Callahan, marking the first time since the 1985-86 season that ACU had more than one player on the all-conference team. Ragland was also named NABC Second Team All-South Central Region after averaging 17.1 points per game.

Golding was a four-year letterwinner at ACU from 1994-98, playing in all 108 games, and was given the Teague Point Guard Award as a senior. He shot 46 percent from the floor over his four-year career, and averaged 4.3 points and 4.2 assists per game. Upon graduating from ACU with a bachelor's degree in exercise and sport science in May of 1999, Golding got his first coaching job as a varsity assistant at South Garland High School, where he helped the team to back-to-back Class 5A playoff appearances.

He spent the 2001-02 season as an assistant coach at Seminole Junior College before taking the head coaching job at Sachse High School. In the program's first years at the 5A level, Golding led the team to a 15-14 record in 2002-03 and an 18-10 mark in 2003-04. Prior to returning to Abilene Christian in 2005, Golding spent the 2004-05 season as an assistant coach at Collin County Community College.

Golding and his wife, Amanda, have two sons, Cason and Chase.
