TCU vs. Big 12 All-Time: 210-364

THE GAME
The TCU men's basketball team will end a five game home stand by welcoming Oklahoma for the team's second conference game of the season. Start time is set for 8:00 p.m. CT inside Schollmaier Arena. Fans not able to attend the conference opener against the Sooners can follow it live on ESPNU with Mitch Holthus (Play-By-Play) and Brydon Manzer (Color) calling the action live. The game can also be heard on KTCU, FrogVision or via TuneIn Radio.

THE OPPONENT
Oklahoma comes into the game after dropping its conference opener to No. 4/4 Baylor last Friday at home in Norman, Okla. The Sooners enter the game with an overall record of 6-6 and having lost their last four straight games. Led by head coach Lon Kruger, Oklahoma boasts 11 underclassmen which is the most under Kruger as the four true freshmen have combined to produce seven games of double-digit scoring.

THE SERIES
TCU and Oklahoma will be meeting up for the 19th time in program history and the ninth time since becoming conference opponents. The Frogs have only won one game in the series which came on March 9, 2013 and head coach Jamie Dixon will be facing the Sooners for the first time in his coaching career.

SPREADING THE WEALTH
Sophomore Alex Robinson tied a career-high at SMU by dishing out a season-high 10 assists. His 10 assists were the most by a TCU student-athlete since former Frog Hank Thorns dished out 11 at Air Force in 2011. The 10 assists were also the fourth-most in the Big 12 Conference this season. Robinson previously had 10 assists against Youngstown State on Dec. 13, 2014, while at Texas A&M.

BRODZIANSKY = POINTS
Vladimir Brodziansky went a perfect 4-of-4 from the field in TCU's loss at SMU. The Slovakian made 13-straight buckets until going 3-for-5 against Texas Southern. A year ago, Brodziansky made 14-straight field goals between three games before misfiring. The junior opened Big 12 play on Friday by scoring a career-high 28 points to go along with a season-high nine rebounds against Kansas.

BUILDING A BENCH
TCU has out-scored its opponent off the bench in 12 of the 13 games this season and in the last seven games alone, the Frogs have out-scored its opponents, 290-145. For the season, TCU's bench has outscored its opponents' bench by a combined score of 459-217 (an average of 35.3 – 16.7 per game).

UNDEFEATED TEAMS
By taking down Arkansas State, 77-54, TCU was one of only 12 remaining undefeated teams in the NCAA up until falling at SMU. The other 11 teams were: Villanova, Baylor, Creighton, UCLA, Gonzaga, Butler, Saint Mary's, South Carolina, USC, Notre Dame and Texas A&M-CC.

RECEIVING VOTES
TCU moved into the national spotlight by receiving votes in both national polls for the first time since 2015 and remained in both polls for consecutive weeks. The last time the Horned Frogs were receiving votes in both polls came on Jan. 12, 2015.

IT'S A START
By defeating Arkansas State, head coach Jamie Dixon became the first first-year head coach in program history to start his career with an 8-0 record. The 11-2 start by TCU matches the second-best in program history (1930-31) and only the 2014-15 squad (13-0) posted a better record to open a campaign. The Horned Frogs are 9-1 at home this year, averaging 79.9 points.

GRAB THE ROCK
Junior Kenrich Williams, who recorded his fifth double-double of the season against Kansas with 11 points and 11 rebounds, posted a career-high 18 rebounds in TCU's victory over UNLV. He has now had 10 or more boards in five of the last seven games. His 18 boards were the most since fellow teammate Karviar Shepherd posted 19 a year ago against Delaware State. His 18 rebounds are the most in a single-game in the Big 12 Conference this season and is tied for the 16th highest in the NCAA.

TCU NOTES
• TCU and Oklahoma will meet for the 19th time on Tuesday night.
• Oklahoma is one of four Big 12 teams head coach Jamie Dixon will be facing for the first time in his career.
• TCU currently ranks No. 40 in turnovers forced in the NCAA and No. 34 in turnover margin.
• Brandon Parrish played in his 110th game last Friday and is a 2017 Allstate NABC Good Works Team® nominee.
• Parrish needs to play in only nine more games to move into the top-10 all-time in games played in school history.
• Karviar Shepherd is now No. 6 all-time in career starts at TCU with 95. He played in his 100th game against Arkansas State
• Shepherd has tallied 589 career rebounds and needs only 111 to become only the 10th player all-time to capture 700 boards.
• Alex Robinson has recorded 13 games of five or more assists this season. He had 10 against SMU.
• Robinson,who was named to the all-tournament team in Vegas, has led TCU in assists eight times this season.
• Robinson scored a career-high 24 points against Washington in Las Vegas and had a career-high 10 assists versus SMU.
• Kenrich Williams grabbed a career-high 18 boards against UNLV. He has now had 10 or more boards in 4 of the last 6 games.
• Williams' 18 boards are the most in the Big 12 Conference this season and tied for the 16th most in the NCAA.
• Williams posted his fifth double-double of the season versus Wofford with 11 points and 11 rebounds.
• Williams ranks No. 15 in the NCAA and No. 1 in the Big 12 in offensive rebounds with a 3.91 average on the season.
• Vladimir Brodziansky got his first start of the season against Wofford and finished with 10 points and eight rebounds.
• Brodziansky recorded a career-high 28 points against Kansas marking his second 20+ scoring outing this season
• The junior is now one of four players averaging double-digits in scoring with 11.8 this season

LAST TIME OUT

FORT WORTH, Texas - TCU's best shooters came off the bench in the Horned Frogs' last game before opening Big 12 Conference play.

Desmond Bane had 18 points and Brandon Parrish had nine points on three 3-pointers, all in a 63-second span in the first half after a sluggish start for both teams, and TCU never trailed in a 74-42 victory over Bradley on Wednesday night to stay undefeated at home.

Kenrich Williams had 10 points and eight rebounds for the Frogs (11-1), who are 9-0 at home this season.

Bane also had three 3-pointers, and combined with Parrish to shoot 9-of-18 overall on a night when the Frogs overall shot just 38 percent (25 of 65) from the field.

- Robinson posted five or more assists in five games at Texas A&M, including a career-high 10 vs. Youngstown St.
- His mother, Darla, competed for the TCU women's basketball team from 1982 through 1984.
- She wore No. 25 as well while at TCU.

32 KARVIAR SHEPEHERD 6-11, SENIOR, FORWARD, DALLAS, TEXAS, PRIME PREP ACADEMY
- Shepherd has made 94 starts, while playing in 104 games in his career.
- Shepherd currently sits No. 6 all-time in career starts and No. 5 in blocked shots in program history.
- Shepherd tallied 15 points, 5 rebounds and 3 assists against Washington in Las Vegas.
- Shepherd played in 29 games during the course of the 2015-16 season, while making 23 starts.
- Battled back injuries all season to score in double-figures in seven games a year ago.
- Shepherd recorded three double-figure rebounding games in 2016.
- Had a 19-board performance vs. DSU, which ranked No. 2 in the Big 12 Conference for the 2015-16 season.
- He was No. 14 overall in the Big 12 Conference a year ago in blocked shots per game at 0.7 for the year.
- In 2014-15, he finished 14th overall in the league in rebounding, averaging 5.7 boards a contest.
- Shepard was the highest-rated prospect to ever sign with TCU up until the signing of Jaylen Fisher.

33 CHRIS WASHBURN 6-8, SENIOR, FORWARD, GRAND PRAIRIE, TEXAS, UTEP
- Washburn played in a total of 22 games in 2015-16 and made 17 starts.
- Wrapped-up the season ranking No. 8 in the Big 12 Conference in blocked shots during league play at 0.9 per contest.
- He scored the game-winner and recorded the game-winning block with 3 seconds left in 58-57 win over Texas.
- He scored in double-figures five times a year ago, while leading TCU in assists and rebounds in five games.
- Washburn has tallied a career-high of 17 points against K-State in 2015.
- Washburn has tallied 15 double-digit scoring games during his career.
- In 2014-15, he finished the season ranked No. 7 in the Big 12 Conference in blocks, while ranking No. 8 in steals.
- Washburn appeared in all 32 games for UTEP in 2012-13 with four starts.

34 KENRICH WILLIAMS 6-7, JUNIOR, GUARD, WACO, TEXAS, NEW MEXICO JC
- Made his return against Jacksonville State after being out a total of 618 days.
- Williams posted his seventh double-double in his career against Kansas with 11 points and 11 rebounds.
- His 18 rebounds against UNLV are the most in the Big 12 Conference this season and 16th-best in the NCAA.
- TCU is 8-2 when Williams grabs double-digit rebounds in a single-game during his career.
- Williams ranks No. 15 in NCAA in offensive rebounds per game and No. 28 in rebounds per game.
- Williams ranks No. 1 in the Big 12 Conference in both offensive and defensive rebounds per game.
- Williams missed the entire 2015-16 campaign and game No. 1 due to injury.
- He tallied a double-double in three games in 2014-15, including a 10 point, 16 board outing versus Texas Tech in Feb.
- He wrapped-up league play ranking No. 7 overall in rebounding after averaging 6.8 rebounds a contest
- He was No. 3 in offensive rebounds in the Big 12 with 2.78 offensive boards a game in 2014-15.
- On the season, Williams was even better, finishing No. 5 overall in rebounds (6.7) and No. 3 in offensive rebounds (2.82).

45 AUSTIN SOTTILE 6-6, JUNIOR, FORWARD, SAINT LOUIS, MO., SAINT LOUIS UNIVERSITY HS
- Sottile is in his first year in the program after coming to TCU as a regular student.
- The walk-on was a letter-winner at Saint Louis University High School in Missouri.
- He earned all-conference accolades as both a junior and senior in basketball.
- At Saint Louis, Sottile scored over 1,000 points and was coached by head coach Erwin Claggett.
- The 6-foot-6 forward averaged 17 points per game as a senior and was a team captain.

TCU

BANE NAMED BIG 12 NEWCOMER OF THE WEEK

TCU freshman Desmond Bane was named Phillips 66 Big 12 Men's Basketball Newcomer of the Week by the league office earlier this year. Bane finished with a team-best 18 points to go along with seven rebounds in TCU's win over Bradley. He added three assists and one steal with no turnovers in 23 minutes and he made 6-of-12 shots from the field, including 3-of-6 from 3-point range.

BUILDING A BENCH

TCU has out-scored its opponent off the bench in 12 of the 13 games this season and in the last seven games alone, the Frogs have out-scored its opponents, 290-145. For the season, TCU's bench has outscored its opponents' bench by a combined score of 459-217 (an average of 35.3 – 16.7 per game).

Opponent	TCU Bench	Opp. Bench
St. Thomas	31	21
Alabama State	30	18
Jacksonville State	31	12
Illinois State	43	19
UNLV	34	2
Washington	48	18
Washington	41	24
Arkansas State	35	15
SMU	35	7
Wofford	22	16
Texas Southern	42	23
Bradley	48	20
Kansas	19	22

ROBINSON SHINING EARLY AND OFTEN

Sophomore Alex Robinson had a career-night in the Global Sports Classic championship game against Washington with a season and career-high 24 points on a career-high 7-of-13 shooting from the field, including a career-high 4-of-6 from deep. The sophomore, who was named to the all-tournament team, came back to torch the Huskies for 16 points and seven assists at home.

FORCING TURNOVERS

TCU forced Washington into 25 turnovers, marking the second time this season that the Frogs have forced an opponent into 20 or more turnovers in a game. On the season, TCU is 9-0 when tallying fewer turnovers than its opponent. To put it into perspective, the Purple and White, who only had nine turnovers against the Huskies, currently sit No. 34 in turnover margin in the NCAA, while ranking No. 40 in turnovers forced nationally.

REBOUNDING MACHINE

TCU got out-rebounded by SMU earlier this season, marking only the second game all season in which the Horned Frogs have been out-rebounded by their opponent. In the last two years, TCU is 19-3 overall when out-rebounding its opponent. When broken down even further, head coach Jamie Dixon is now 275-50 overall as a head coach when his team out-boards the opposition. He was 17-4 last season at Pitt.

WILLIAMS RETURNS TO FORM

In his first start of the season, Kenrich Williams made the most of his time on the court, posting his third double-double of his career with 13 points and 10 boards against Illinois State. Williams, who a game earlier played in an actual game for the first time in 618 days, also posted three assists and two assists in the win. He came back to tally a career-high 18 rebounds versus UNLV.

When the junior records double-figures in rebounds during his career, TCU is 8-2. When he has posted a double-double in a game, the Frogs are also 6-1 this season.. Williams has grabbed at least six rebounds in all but one outing in 2016-17, including 10 or more seven times. The seven double-figure rebounding games are the most by any Big 12 player this season.

POINT A MINUTE

Junior Vladimir Brodziansky, who totaled 14 and 12 points against UNLV and Washington in Vegas, respectively, scored a career-high 24 points on 7-of-8 shooting from the field, including 7-of-13 from the charity stripe against Illinois State. Even more impressive though is that the junior did it in only 24 minutes of action. Brodziansky had a stretch during the second half in which he scored 11-straight.

PARRISH RETURNING TO FORM

Senior Brandon Parrish had quite the game against Jacksonville State, scoring 20 or more points for only a third time in his four-year career with a 20-point night. In his 100th career game, Parrish, who made his first start of the season, connected on four-of-six from deep. With four three's, Parrish has now connected on four or more triples in a game four times in his career.

CHUCKING IT FROM ALL OVER

TCU recorded a season-high 11 three-pointers against Jacksonville State. With 11 triples, the Purple and White hit 10 or more three's in two-straight outings prior to UNLV. Consider this, TCU didn't connect on at least 10 or more three's in a single-game a year ago until late February when they knocked down 11 at Iowa State. The Frogs didn't even post their second game of 10 or more treys until the second week of March against Texas Tech at the Phillips 66 Big 12 Championship.

CLOSING A HALF STRONG

In TCU's 98-62 victory over Alabama State, the Frogs closed the first half on an 18-2 run. In TCU's first two games of the year, the Purple and White combined to outscore the opposition, 28-10, in the final 5 minutes of the opening frame. During that stretch, TCU forced its opponent into a combined nine turnovers between the two games.

FISHER HONORED BY BIG 12 CONFERENCE

TCU freshman Jaylen Fisher was named Phillips 66 Big 12 Men's Basketball Newcomer of the Week by the league office earlier this year. Fisher, who shared weekly accolades with Baylor's Manu Leconte, tallied 13 points and seven assists in his first career start against St. Thomas. He also had a game-high four steals, while connecting on 6-of-14 (.429) shots from the field.

DOUBLE-FIGURE OUTPUTS

In TCU's first two games, the Frogs had five or more players score in double-figures in each contest. Freshmen Desmond Bane and Jaylen Fisher opened their careers with back-to-back outings of 10 or more points. Bane lit up the scoreboard for a game-high 19 points on 6-of-10 from the field against Alabama State.

DISHING THE ROCK

TCU recorded a total of 29 assists versus Alabama State. The 29 assists were the most since the Purple and White dished out 28 against Maryland-Eastern Shore on Dec. 21, 2004. Since 2004, the Frogs have only had 25 or more assists in a single-game a total of six times. TCU's 29 assists are also tied for the second-most in the Big 12 Conference this season as West Virginia and Iowa State tallied 29 and 31, respectively.

NEWCOMERS STARTING OFF

In TCU's season-opener against St. Thomas, the Horned Frogs newcomer trio of Jaylen Fisher (13), Desmond Bane (12) and Alex Robinson (16) combined to score 41 of TCU's 82 points, which is 50 percent of the Horned Frogs' scoring output. TCU started two freshmen in Fisher and Bane, which is the first time since 2013 that two or more freshmen have started a season-opener. It was also the highest output by a class of newcomers since TCU had five newcomers score 66 of TCU's 93 season-opening points against Northwestern State in 2001.

A NICE START

In his first career game, freshman Jaylen Fisher dished out a team-high seven assists. His seven assists were the most in a season-opener since all-time great Kyan Anderson recorded eight against SMU in 2013 at the American Airlines Center. The Tennessee native's seven assists were also the most by a newcomer in their first game as a Horned Frog since Hank Thorns posted 10 against Jackson State in 2010.

RANKED TEAMS STAGGERING

TCU will play a total of six teams either ranked or receiving votes in the preseason Associate Press poll, including four ranked in the top-25 in Kansas (3), West Virginia (20), Texas (21) and Iowa State (24). Other teams receiving votes include Oklahoma and Washington. That number only increases in the USA Today Coaches poll as the Frogs will face off against eight teams either ranked or receiving votes in Kansas, West Virginia, Texas, Iowa State, Oklahoma, Washington, Kansas State and SMU. Jamie Dixon is 45-60 all-time against ranked opponents.

DIXON ERA BEGINS

Jamie Dixon, a 2007 TCU Hall of Fame Inductee, became the 22nd head coach in the history of the Horned Frogs men's basketball program last March. He returns to his alma mater after serving 13 seasons as head coach at the University of Pittsburgh.

Dixon enjoyed a successful four-year career at TCU where he played for Jim Killingsworth and led the Horned Frogs to two Southwest Conference titles as a junior and senior. He earned All-SWC honors in 1987 and was an All-SWC Academic performer. Additionally, he led the SWC in assists as a senior, earned the Henry Iba Award as MVP of the All-College Tournament and was voted TCU's Senior Male Scholar-Athlete Award recipient.

TCU REFERENCE

JUST TCU, THANK YOU!

Though the TCU Department of Intercollegiate Athletics is a proud and integral part of Texas Christian University, it desires to be recognized simply as TCU (acronym only) Athletics.

In all sports-related media references, we respectfully urge that the university's teams be identified with an appropriate appellation – TCU.

In subsequent references of the same presentation the team may be referred to by nickname - Horned Frogs. A shorter version of the nickname, Frogs, is acceptable in later usage.

MEDIA INFORMATION

INTERVIEW REQUESTS
Interviews with TCU basketball student-athletes and coaches must be scheduled directly through the TCU Athletics Communications Office by contacting Steven Schoon. Requests should be made at least 24 hours in advance. While telephone interviews with local media members are permissible, in-person interviews with student-athletes and coaches are recommended and encouraged.

All practices are generally closed unless otherwise specified. TV crews and photographers are only permitted to shoot practice after receiving permission from the Media Relations Office.

MEDIA WILL CALL
All media passes available for pickup on game day will be left at media will call, located in the main tunnel of Ed and Rae Schollmaier Arena.

MEDIA CREDENTIAL REQUESTS
All credential requests for home TCU basketball games will only be accepted through an online system (SportsSystems.com/TCU). Please visit the site for complete instructions on submitting the application form. All credential requests for an outlet must be made at one time, and only those applications submitted by an outlet's sports editor or sports director will be considered. Requests should be received no later than noon, two days prior to the game. For more information, contact administrative assistant Deanna Damon at (817) 257-7969.

GAME DAY SERVICES
The TCU Athletics Communications Office will provide rosters of both teams, game notes, statistics and media guides to accredited media members for each home contest inside the media room on the lower level of Ed and Rae Schollmaier Arena. Complete statistics and game books will be available following each game. Media wishing to file stories after the game may do so in the press conference/media room, while food and drinks will be available for working media members prior to each home game in the same location.

RADIO BROADCASTS
Four (4) courtesy telephone lines, as well as two (2) ISDN SPIDS, are available courtside on press row for the visiting team's official radio station. The visitor's radio location is at the end of press row. The TCU/IMG Sports Network is located on the opposite end of press row. TCU Director of Broadcasting Brian Estridge serves as the local contact when placing phone line orders. He can be contacted at (817) 257-5462 or via email b.estridge@tcu.edu. Also, for ease of operation, all outgoing calls should be placed with either a calling card or by collect. If problems are encountered TCU's Bruce Hudson is on call during all TCU home games.

PHOTOGRAPHERS
As prescribed in NCAA and Big 12 Conference guidelines, working photographers will be limited to the court baseline areas for game-time shooting. No photographers will be allowed to shoot courtside from in front of either the officials or press row tables. Additionally, tripods will not be allowed at courtside or along the end lines. Strobe light installations must first gain approval by TCU Associate Athletics Director Ross Bailey. He can be reached at (817) 257-5658 or via email (r.bailey@tcu.edu). No upper-level shooting platforms are available inside Schollmaier Arena. Space does not allow for freelancers. Photographers who wish to cover TCU home games must apply for credentials.

TCU ON THE RADIO
TCU men's basketball games are broadcast live on the radio in the DFW Metroplex on 570 KLIF AM, as well as 88.7 KTCU FM and the TuneIn App (all games). Brian Estridge will serve as the primary play-by-play announcer, while he will be joined by John Denton. Broadcasts will also be available online on GoFrogs.com for FrogVision subscribers.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS
TCU head coach Jamie Dixon and requested student-athletes will be available for interviews in the media area, located on the lower level of Ed and Rae Schollmaier Arena, following a brief cooling off period. If requested, opposing coaches and student-athletes can be available to the media in the media area prior to TCU's arrival.

To request specific players to attend the postgame press conference, contact Steven Schoon during the second half of the game. The TCU locker room is closed to the media both at home and on the road.

BIG 12 COACHES' TELECONFERENCE
The Big 12 men's basketball coaches will participate in a weekly media-only teleconference during the 2016-17 season. The schedule will commence with one in December, followed by weekly teleconferences beginning in January. The teleconference begins at 9:52 a.m. CT. The call can also be heard live and on replay online at Big12Sports.com. Listed below is the tentative weekly schedule. Please contact either the TCU or Big 12 media relations staffs for the call-in and replay phone numbers.

10:48 a.m. – Steve Prohm, Iowa State
10:56 a.m. – Bruce Weber, Kansas State
11:04 a.m. – Lon Kruger, Oklahoma

LEAVING THE LONE STAR STATE
TCU now won't leave the Lone Star state until a Saturday, Jan. 7 conference tilt at West Virginia in Morgantown.

EXCITEMENT IS UPON US
Going into the 2016-17 campaign, TCU sold a school record 4,400 season tickets. In comparison, the Frogs sold a total of 3,704 season tickets a year ago. TCU had 6,075 spectators at its season-opener, which marked the fifth-largest attendance figure in Ed and Rae Schollmaier Arena history.

DIXON AMONG THE BEST
Jamie Dixon is one of only eight coaches nationally to guide their programs to 11 NCAA Tournament appearances in the last 13 seasons. Only two coaches in NCAA history have taken their schools to the NCAA Tournament more times in their 13 seasons as a head coach. Dixon ranks No. 9 among winningest active Division I coaches, as well as winning coaches all-time through 13 seasons.

Dixon's .658 career Big East win percentage ranks as the best all-time mark in league play, surpassing the likes of Georgetown's John Thompson, UConn's Jim Calhoun, Syracuse's Jim Boeheim, Louisville's Rick Pitino and St. John's Lou Carnesseca.

WHAT A STAFF
Jamie Dixon's coaching staff has combined to have over 20 former student-athletes selected in the NBA Draft. Assistant head coach David Patrick coached and recruited 2016 No. 1 overall pick Ben Simmons to LSU. Dixon's staff consists of Patrick, Ryan Miller, Corey Barker and special assistant Tom Herrion.

WHAT RETURNS
Heading into this season, Brandon Parrish, Karviar Shepherd and Chris Washburn combined for 214 starts as Horned Frogs. Only five out of the remaining 13 student-athletes in Vladimir Brodziansky, JD Miller, Malique Trent, Kenrich Williams and Michael Williams, have started at least one game at TCU prior to the season opener. In all, the Frogs returned four out of their five starters from a year ago and six out of their top-7 scorers.

REMEMBER ME
After sitting out last season with an injury, junior Kenrich Williams returns for the 2016-17 season. The forward wrapped up league play in 2014-15 ranking No. 7 overall in rebounding after averaging 6.8 rebounds a contest and No. 3 in offensive rebounds with 2.78 offensive boards a game. He tallied a double-double in three games in 2014-15 and had eight double-digit outings against league foes.

FISHER READY FOR BIG THINGS
Freshman Jaylen Fisher will don the Purple and White this season after being ranked as the No. 34 overall player in the country by ESPN. The Tennessee native, who was considered the eighth-best point guard nationally by ESPN, was a consensus four-star recruit and rated as the second-best player in the state of Tennessee by 247Sports and ESPN.

GOING FISHING
Newcomer Jaylen Fisher is the highest ranked recruit by ESPN to ever play for the Horned Frogs. Only two other Big 12 Conference programs in Kansas and Texas have a player ranked higher in the final 2016 ESPN 100 rankings.

ONE GAME AT A TIME
Heading into this season, TCU had only three players who saw action in all 33 games last season in Vladimir Brodziansky, JD Miller and Brandon Parrish. When broken down even further, Parrish is the only Frog to have started all 33 games in 2015-16.

PARRISH PUSHING AHEAD
In the Horned Frogs' last four wins over Oklahoma State, Tennessee, Texas and Texas Tech in 2015-16, Brandon Parrish shot 55.6 percent from the field (20-of-36), including 53 percent from 3 (8-of-15). He averaged 14.8 points per game in the four wins and 3.8 rebounds.

In the 12 overall games won last season, Parrish shot 54 percent from the floor and from downtown. In games lost, the senior dropped to 36 percent from the field and only 34 percent from deep.

TOUGH AT HOME IN LEAGUE PLAY
Dating back to 2014-15, TCU has won five out of its last 13 Big 12 Conference home games, having defeated Texas, Texas Tech, K-State and Oklahoma State twice. The only losses during that stretch came to No. 17 Iowa State in the regular-season home finale in 2015, versus No. 19 Baylor, No. 17 West Virginia, No. 7 Kansas, No. 19 Iowa State, K-State and Texas Tech. In the five victories, the Horned Frogs held all five under 60 points.

NO SOUP FOR YOU
The Frogs have posted 10 or more blocks in a game seven times in the last two years.

NON-CONFERENCE SUCCESS
Last season, TCU went 10-5 overall in non-conference play, including 7-2 at home. In 2014-15, the Frogs went undefeated in non-conference action for the first time in school history, posting a 13-0 record. TCU posted a 9-3 mark in non-conference play in 2013-14, matching its non-conference win total from a year earlier.

NON-CONFERENCE HISTORY LESSON
TCU closed out the 2014 non-conference portion of its schedule with a perfect 13-0 record. In the Big 12 Conference, the Frogs tied 2001-02 Oklahoma State for the 10th best start in league history.

RANKED TEAMS BEWARE
TCU has experienced recent success against ranked opponents, especially in games played at home. TCU has won four meetings against ranked teams dating back to 2011-12, including a 70-55 decision over No. 21 Oklahoma State in 2014-15. The squad also had one loss in overtime to No. 21 San Diego State in the 2012 regular-season finale.

TAKING DOWN RANKED SQUADS
TCU has defeated a pair of top-20 foes in the same season only once during program history. That mark came during the 2011-12 season when the Frogs captured wins over No. 11 UNLV and No. 18 New Mexico.

RANKINGS WATCH
In 2014-15, TCU moved into the top-25 poll at No. 25 for the first time since 1998-99. The Purple and White were receiving votes in both polls in 2014-15, beginning week 4 [Dec. 1] through week 10 (Jan. 12). As of Feb. 2, 2015, TCU was still receiving votes in the USA Today Coaches Poll, which marked the first time in over 15 years at that time that the Horned Frogs had been receiving votes that late into the season.

TAKING IT TO THE WIRE
The Frogs have posted an all-time record of 46-64 (.418) in overtime games and 35-30 (.538) in overtime games at home since 1961. TCU is a combined 5-0 in games that extend beyond two overtimes in its history. Jamie Dixon is 17-8 all-time in overtime games and 5-2 in double overtime contests.

EXTRA SESSIONS
TCU played two overtime games in 2014-15, going into extra sessions at No. 17 West Virginia and versus No. 21 Baylor. The Frogs didn't go to overtime a year ago. Prior to 2014-15, the Purple and White hadn't played an overtime game since a 98-92 setback to San Diego State on March 3, 2012. TCU's last four overtime games have been against teams ranked in the top 25.

HOME SWEET HOME
TCU is 743-458 all-time in home games. The Horned Frogs went 9-9 in home games a year ago inside Ed and Rae Schollmaier Arena. On campus, the Frogs went 454-278 (.620) in Daniel-Meyer Coliseum and 145-99 (.594) inside the TCU Field House from 1925-1953.

BOMBING FROM DEEP
TCU had connected on at least one 3-pointer in 80 straight games prior to not making one at Oklahoma State in 2015. The squad has now dropped at least one trey in 791 of its last 793 contests dating back to a Feb. 11, 1990 game vs. Texas. TCU has now had 48 straight games with a 3-pointer.

WELCOME ONE AND ALL
TCU has a total of five student-athletes on its 2016-17 roster who have transferred from other colleges. The five transfers include: Vladimir Brodziansky (Pratt CC), Alex

Robinson (Texas A&M), Malique Trent (New Mexico JC), Chris Washburn (UTEP) and Kenrich Williams (New Mexico JC).

THE NBA
In total, TCU has had 18 student-athletes go on to NBA careers after leaving Fort Worth, with the most notable being Kurt Thomas.

TCU head coach Jamie Dixon and his coaching staff have sent over 30 players into the NBA, including the likes of 2016 No. 1 NBA Draft Pick Ben Simmons, NBA Champion Matthew Dellavedova, former NBA All-Rookie honoree Steven Adams and several others. In all, Dixon has had six players drafted in either the first or second round, while assistant head coach David Patrick has eight former players in the league. Ryan Miller currently has seven former players suiting up for NBA teams this season.

FROGS VS. THE BIG 12
TCU owns a long history with several current members of the Big 12, having previously played in the Southwest Conference along side Baylor, Texas and Texas Tech. Entering 2012-13, the squad had faced each school in the league's current format at least four times with the exception of West Virginia, which it had never played.

TCU's series histories against Baylor (179 games), Texas (170 games) and Texas Tech (128 games) rank No. 3, No. 4 and No. 7, respectively, among the lengthiest in the history of the program.

DIXON'S ACTING CAREER
As a youngster growing up in North Hollywood, Dixon had an acting career. He still is a card-carrying member of the Screen Actors Guild. In his early 20s, Dixon was in a Bud Light commercial that featured a woman dunking on him. The commercial was one of the more popular basketball ads of the year and aired on virtually every basketball event.

At age 12, Dixon fired a space gun in a commercial for Mattel. At age 10, he was the star of a TV commercial for Rice Krispies, pretending to celebrate a birthday while eating cereal. At age 5, he did a TV commercial for Volvo, sitting in the back seat and smiling while his father played the driver. He was also in a Kentucky Fried Chicken commercial. Father Jim Dixon was an actor and screenwriter who starred in a variety of movies and productions.

TCU SIGNING CLASS

A TOP-25 CLASS
The TCU men's basketball program announced the details of arguably top recruiting class in school history in November.

The three-man class put together by first-year head coach Jamie Dixon's Horned Frog staff has been ranked as high as No. 23 nationally and No. 3 in the Big 12 Conference by 247Sports.

Inking with TCU in November were Lat Mayen, R.J. Nembhard and Kevin Samuel. All three earned national top-100 rankings, while each one of the trio were considered four-star signees by at least one outlet.

LAT MAYEN
Mayen comes to TCU from Australia where he is considered the No. 1 player in the 2017 Australian class. A member of the Under-19 Australian team, Mayen, a four-star recruit and the No. 2 ranked player in Australia by AUSA Hoops, represented Australia at the prestigious 2016 Albert Schweitzer Tournament in Germany. The 6-foot-8 forward, who is a Basketball Australia's Centre of Excellence Scholarship holder, is considered a three-star rated prospect by Rivals and currently competes for the Australian Institute of Sport.

Originally from Sudan, Mayen represented South Australia in the 2016 Australian Under 20 National Championships where he averaged 11.5 points and 7.1 rebounds per game, He also averaged 24.8 points and 10.3 rebounds per game at the 2015 Australian School Championships, while shooting over 51 percent from the floor. Mayen chose the Horned Frogs over offers from Maryland, Utah, Marquette and Virginia Tech.

R.J. NEMBHARD
Nembhard will don the Purple and White next season after staring at Keller High School in Keller, Texas. The consensus four-star recruit is considered the No. 71 ranked recruit in the nation by Rivals. Nembhard, who is considered the No. 120 ranked prospect in the nation by 247sports, also ranks No. 25 among shooting guards and the 11th-best prospect in the state of Texas by 247. A 6-foot-4 guard, Nembhard is listed as the No. 30 overall rated point guard by ESPN, while also ranking as the 16th-best recruit in the Midlands region and 10th overall prospect in the state of Texas by ESPN. Scout lists him as the 26th-best guard nationally and the No. 4 ranked shooting guard in the Midlands region.

As a junior, Nembhard averaged 20.6 points and 5.3 rebounds per game and was the District 5-6A MVP and a third-team All-Area selection at Keller. He held offers from Baylor, California, Creighton, Kansas State, Nebraska, North Carolina State, Oklahoma, Oklahoma State, SMU, Texas A&M, Texas and several others.

KEVIN SAMUEL
Samuel comes to TCU after being a consensus four-star recruit and was ranked as high as the No. 72 overall rated prospect nationally in 2016 by Scout. The 6-foot-10 forward out of Houston is also ranked No. 102 nationally among prospect by Rivals and No. 105 overall by 247Sports, respectively. ESPN ranks Samuels as the 41st-best power forward in the nation, while also ranking him as the 20th-best player in the region and No. 13 overall in the state of Texas. Samuels, who sits as the 11th-best center in the nation by 247, has also been ranked as the No. 21 overall ranked center nationally by Scout and No. 1 overall center in the Midlands Region and Texas by the outlet. Samuel, who is homeschooled and plays for Redemption Christian HomeSchool Academy, chose TCU over offers from Baylor, Kansas State, Oklahoma, Oklahoma State, Texas, Texas A&M, UCLA and several others.

FAST FACTS ABOUT JAMIE DIXON

His sister is the late Maggie Dixon, who served as the head women's basketball coach at the United States Military Academy (2005-06) and as an assistant coach at DePaul. In 2006, Jamie and Maggie became the first brother-sister duo in NCAA Division I history to guide their teams to the NCAA Tournament in the same season.

A week later after the Final Four, Maggie tragically died of a heart arrhythmia. A vibrant, passionate and successful coach, Maggie was only 28 years old.

In Maggie's honor, the Maggie Dixon Classic is held each year at Madison Square Garden. It has become the nation's premier women's college basketball event and held in conjunction with the Maggie Dixon Heart Health Fair.

Dixon and his family have created the Maggie Dixon Foundation, a nonprofit organization with two goals: to educate youth on heart health awareness and the promotion of women's college basketball.

Dixon saved two people from a car that flipped several times after veering off and hitting a guardrail on I-279 North while at Pittsburgh. Dixon's initial thought was that "no one would survive this event." He was the first person on the scene and cracked the windshield while pulling a female passenger from the wreckage. When asked about the incident, Dixon simply responded, "I did what anyone else in Pittsburgh would have done given the situation. I just happened to be there."

Dixon's grandparents, who emigrated from Ireland, met in Pittsburgh in the 1920s. They fell in love in Pittsburgh and lived in the city for five years before moving to New York. As a young boy, Dixon's grandparents would tell him stories about the Pittsburgh Pirates. Dixon instantly became a Pirates and Roberto Clemente fan as he hung a poster of the All-Star on his wall. He had several opportunities during his time at Pitt to throw out the first pitch at Pirates games.

DID YOU KNOW - DIXON'S PLAYING CAREER LEADS TO COACHING HS GIRLS TEAM

Dixon is still known in New Zealand as one of the best professional players to compete there. He scored 61 points for a New Zealand traveling all-star team against Sam Houston State. Dixon played professionally for the Hawke's Bay Hawks and began his coaching career at Te Aute College in 1989.

The first team Dixon ever coached was a 10-year-old girls team in New Zealand - "I started coaching a 10-year-old girls' team, a couple of high school teams in the Hawke's Bay and that's where I decided I wanted to get into coaching."

JAMIE DIXON CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

• Earned four college basketball National Coach of the Year honors: 2011 Sporting News, 2010 Jim Phelan Award, 2010 USA Basketball and 2009 Naismith.

• Guided Pitt to 11 NCAA Tournament appearances in the last 13 seasons, one of only eight college basketball programs nationally to achieve that honor.

• Set the NCAA Division I record for most wins after eight seasons as a head coach in 2011 with 216 victories. He also ranks fourth all-time in wins after 10 seasons (262) and 12 seasons (307) as a head coach, third following nine seasons (238), tied the record for most wins after seven years in 2010 (188) and set the six-year mark in 2009 (163).

• Guided Pitt to three Big East Championships including two outright Big East regular-season titles (2003-04 and 2010-11) and one tournament championship (2008). The recent 2011 outright regular-season title came in a league that placed an all-time record 11 teams in the NCAA Tournament.

• Led Pitt to its first two NCAA Tournament No. 1 seeds (2009 and 2011).

• Became the only coach in NCAA Division I basketball to guide his team to the NCAA Tournament and win at least one game in each tournament over a six-year span (2006-11).

• Guided Pitt to its first NCAA Regional Final (64-team tournament) and Elite Eight appearance, a school-best 31-5 record, the school's first No. 1 national ranking and the program's first-ever No. 1 seed upon entering the NCAA Tournament in 2008-09.

• Led the USA Basketball Under-19 Team to the 2009 FIBA World Championship Gold Medal and 9-0 record after inheriting an overhauled roster and assuming head coaching duties a month before competition began.

• Concluded the 2012-13 season and final in the league as the winningest coach in Big East history with a current .658 winning percentage in league games (127-66), surpassing several legendary coaches including John Thompson, Jim Calhoun, Jim Boeheim, Rick Pitino and Lou Carnesseca.

• Became the only coach in school history to lead Pitt to two 30-win seasons, two No. 1 seeds upon entering the NCAA Tournament, nine consecutive 20-win seasons, eight straight 10-plus win Big East regular seasons and eight straight NCAA Tournaments (2004-11).

• Directed Pitt to three NCAA Sweet Sixteen appearances (2004, 2007 and 2009).

• Named Madison Square Garden's College Basketball "Coach of the Decade" (2000-10).

• Guided Pitt to its second Big East Championship title in 2008. The Panthers became the second squad in league history to capture the crown after winning four games.

• Led Pitt to the Big East Championship final four times.

• One of only nine coaches in NCAA Division I history to win over 100 games during the first four seasons of a coaching career.

• Reached both 100 wins and 200 wins at Pitt faster than any other head coach in school history. Dixon needed only 126 games to reach the 100-win milestone. Only 14 coaches in the history of college basketball reached 100 career victories faster than Dixon. His 200 victories were accomplished in only 255 total contests. He is one of only 13 coaches in NCAA Division I history to reach 200 victories in 255 games or less.

• Amassed a spectacular 13-year 143-83 conference regular-season record (115-57 Big East; 27-26 ACC) at Pitt.

• Tallied a 206-35 home record in his first 13 seasons as head coach.

• Became the first rookie head coach in Big East history to both guide his team to the league's regular-season title and earn Big East Coach of the Year honors in 2003-04. Dixon earned those accolades after leading the Panthers to the Big East regular-season title and a school-record 31 wins, which ranks as the third-highest total in NCAA Division I history for a first-year head coach.

• Guided Pitt to three top-10 percent rankings in the NCAA's Academic Performance Ratings over the last four seasons (2013-14, 2011-12 and 2010-11).

ED & RAE SCHOLLMAIER ARENA

SCHOLLMAIER ARENA

Previously known as the Daniel-Meyer Coliseum, the facility underwent a $72 million renovation. The Schollmaiers provided the lead gift. The Daniel-Meyer name will remain prominent as the entire area will be known as the Daniel-Meyer Athletic Complex.

The men's and women's basketball programs received new locker rooms and team meeting rooms as well as an increased sports medicine center. There will also be new locker rooms for visiting teams.

The new building facade for the arena architecturally complements Amon G. Carter Stadium and the TCU campus. The interior has a lower playing surface to increase courtside seating and provide a more intimate atmosphere. Wider concourses and multiple public entries will ease congestion. The fan experience is further enhanced by new concession stands and restrooms as well as increased points of sale. A new courtside club lounge was constructed on floor level.

Additional features are a TCU Athletics Hall of Fame display on the concourse level, offices for Olympic sports and administration and a larger main ticket office to support both the new arena and Amon G. Carter Stadium.
