THE TEAM

- Texas Tech ranks among the NCAA's Top 35 in five categories which include offensive field goal percentage (48.6 • 24th), fewest turnovers per game (11.2 • 26th), assist-to-turnover ratio (1.35 • 28th), fewest turnovers (246 • 28th) and turnover margin (+3.0 • 31st).
- Texas Tech's 48.6 team field goal percentage is on pace and would be the highest for the Red Raiders since the 1988-89 team connected for a 49.7 team field goal percentage.
- A win tonight would give Chris Beard 16 victories in his first season with Texas Tech which would allow him to pass James Dickey (15 • 1991-92) for sole possession of third place. Only Gene Gibson (19 • 1961-62 • NCAA Tournament) and Bob Knight (23 • 2001-02 • NCAA Tournament) have more wins during their first full season as head coach at Texas Tech.
- Beard's 15 wins are tied for 7th among coaches in their first season at their current school (As of 02/03). He is tied with Jamie Dixon at TCU, Scott Nagy at Wright State and Ryan Odom at UMBC. Beard trails only Paul Weir (New Mexico State • 21), Tim Jankovich (SMU • 19), Matt Lottich (Valparaiso • 19), Tubby Smith (17 • Memphis), Grant McCasland (16 • Arkansas State) and Kyle Smith (16 • San Francisco).

ABOUT 4:1

"One of many great things I learned from Coach Knight was the idea about mental toughness. The mental is to the physical as 4 is to 1. Everyone has talented players. What separates good teams from great teams and contenders from champions is mental toughness. Mental toughness is everything to us, and I'm proud of this team for embracing 4 to 1." - Chris Beard

MEN'S BASKETBALL DEALT ROAD LOSS BY TEXAS, 62-58

• Texas Tech overcame an 11-point second half deficit but was unable to finish off its first Big 12 road win of the season as Texas tucked away a 62-58 decision at the Frank Erwin Center.

• The loss dropped the Red Raiders (15-7, 3-6 Big 12) into a three-way tie for seventh place in the Big 12 standings with Texas (9-13, 3-6 Big 12) and Oklahoma State. Texas Tech also was unable to capture its first victory in Austin since the 1995-96 season.

• Keenan Evans dialed up 11 of his team-leading 15 points during the second half. The 15 points enabled Evans to extend his streak to 10 consecutive games in double figures. He added four rebounds but committed a season's best five turnovers.

• Anthony Livingston pumped home 14 points aided by a trio of three-pointers. He has provided 10-plus in back-to-back games for the fourth time this season.

• Once again, Niem Stevenson was a highlight off the bench with 12 points, three rebounds and two assists. He was 4-of-8 shooting and connected on a pair of three-pointers.

• Zach Smith worked his way to seven points and 13 rebounds fueled by six boards on the offensive end whereas Aaron Ross chipped in six points followed by Justin Gray with six rebounds, three assists and two steals.

• Texas Tech was limited to a season-low 35.6 shooting clip on 21-of-59 from the floor. The Red Raiders hit 6-of-21 on their three-point attempts and were plagued by a 10-of-19 effort at the free throw line. Texas Tech did battle its way to a 38-35 rebounding advantage.

• The Longhorns notched a 24-for-52 shooting effort but were able to connect on 13-for-22 during the second half. Texas connected on 6-for-17 from three-point territory but also struggled at the charity stripe going 8-for-17. The Longhorns held a 30-20 edge in paint points.

• Texas was led by Jarrett Allen's 19 points and eight rebounds. The freshman converted on 8-of-11 from the floor over his 35 minutes of action.

• Eric Davis, Jr. secured 15 points, while Andrew Jones tacked on 11 points and distributed seven assists for the Longhorns.

MOMENTS THAT MATTERED

• The game's opening eight minutes featured four lead changes before Texas Tech ripped off an 11-2 spurt to turn a 12-11 deficit into a 22-14 lead at the 6:16 mark.

• Livingston provided the icebreaker with a three-pointer on the left wing. Then, Smith added an acrobatic tipin to make it 16-12 with 9:36 remaining.

• After an Allen jumper, Ross cleaned the offensive glass with a tipoff of his own and sank a pair of free throws. Gray capped the flurry with an off-balanced midrange jumper through contact for the eight-point advantage.

• Texas responded with a 14-4 run to take a 28-26 edge into the locker room. The Longhorns kept the momentum and registered 13 of the opening 17 points of the second half to build their largest lead at 41-30 with 15:13 to go.

• The Red Raiders went to work and were able to draw even at 50-50 with 6:50 left.

• Texas Tech made its move starting with a Smith layup off a curl to bring the score to 47-39 at the 11:25 mark.

• Evans rattled home a trey on the left wing, and Stevenson drove hard to the basket for a layup which made the game a one-possession contest.

• It was Stevenson who drained the game-tying free throws and put Texas Tech in-front at 53-50 with 6:14 on the clock courtesy of a triple from the top of the key.

• All square at 58-58, Davis, Jr. knocked down the go-ahead three-pointer for Texas with 28.8 seconds left.

• Texas Tech's attempt to tie from Livingston misfired on the ensuing possession, and Jones split his free throws with 6.3 seconds remaining to close out the four-point decision.

• The Red Raiders went without a basket during the closing 5:03 of the contest.

FROM THE BENCH WITH COACH BEARD

"First, give Texas credit with their length. Defensively, they mixed up the defenses a little bit so I'll always give the opponent credit. From my point of view, we've just got to do a better job of getting better shots. We've got to have more individual performances. I told the guys today that there are two things with this sport; sure play as a team, but then you have to have some individual performances and you see it in our league all the time."

"Texas has been in a lot of close games this year. From their point of view, I'm sure that they finished strong. I thought they played great in a lot of ways. They have a lot of great players and are a well-coached team. We knew it was going to be very difficult tonight. We normally shoot free throws a lot better than that, and we normally take care of the ball better than that. We had way too many turnovers in the first half. You've got to make free throws, but give Texas credit. I thought that it was more of what they did than what we didn't do."

MOMENTS THAT MATTERED

• Texas Tech held an 8-6 advantage at the 16:04 mark of the opening half after back-to-back buckets from Temple. He knocked down a midrange jumper on the left elbow off the glass and followed a Williams miss for a layup.

• The Sooners responded with 25 of the next 34 points over a 7:39 span. Oklahoma connected on 11 of its 14 field goals during the spurt.

• The trio of Hield, Spangler and Woodard did the heavy lifting with 21 of the points ignited by a trio of Hield three-pointers. The last Hield triple made it 31-17 with 8:11 left.

• OU opened up its largest lead of the first half at 49-33 on Hield's fourth three-ball inside the final minute.

• Tech responded with a Williams transition trey. Out of a timeout, a driving Evans dished off to Gray for a traditional three-point play off a layup and a foul to pull the Red Raiders back to within 49-39 going into the locker room.

• Texas Tech got as close as 51-42 on a Temple foul shot with 18:03 remaining. The Sooners put together 20 of the next 30 points over the next nine minutes to tuck the game away. Two Hield free throws capped the flurry and gave Oklahoma a 71-52 advantage at the 9:27 mark.

• The Sooners relied on Hield and Cousins during the second 20 minutes. The duo combined for 26 points and hit nine of their 11 shots.

• The 91 points marked the fifth time that OU has broken the 90-point barrier on the season and also is the highest total allowed by the Red Raiders this season.

TIMEOUT WITH TUBBY

"I was very impressed with Oklahoma. They're certainly very deserving of their number one ranking. They're shooting the ball well and playing with a lot of confidence. But I was also proud of how our guys competed. We ran into a team that just shot the lights out, and we couldn't keep up. We knew going in that we had to play a perfect game, a flawless game, to have a chance to compete, and we didn't."

"You can't afford to double or help off of any of them because that creates problems. They have a rim protector like Khadeem Lattin that makes a big difference. It was an excellent move by Coach Kruger to put Jordan Woodard at the shooting guard. He's lighting it up as well. They play long and were intimidating on the offensive and defensive end. That's what makes them a good team. They have so many players who can score."

DEFENSE, LATE RALLY PUSHES MEN'S BASKETBALL TO 65-63 WIN OVER NO. 3 OKLAHOMA

• Texas Tech made several key plays down the stretch on both ends of the floor and used a pair of late runs in both halves to pick up a 65-63 victory over No. 3 Oklahoma at the United Supermarkets Arena.

• Texas Tech (16-9, 6-7 Big 12) has piled up a trio of Top 25 wins in consecutive fashion for the first time in program history over an eight-day span.

• The last time the Red Raiders defeated an Associated Press Top 5 opponent came when Tech upended No. 5 Texas by an 83-80 decision on March 1, 2008.

• The Red Raiders put together an 8-2 finishing kick over the last 2:45 to turn a four-point deficit into a two-point triumph after Tech ripped off an 8-0 flurry in the closing 1:40 of the opening half.

• Aaron Ross dialed up a team-leading 17 points on 6-of-12 from the floor sparked by three treys. He extended his career-long run to six straight games in double figures.

• Keenan Evans came away with 12 of his 14 points during the second half coupled with three assists and two steals. He was 4-of-6 shooting and buried 5-of-7 from the free throw line highlighted by a trio of clutch free throws inside the final 30 seconds.

• Zach Smith filled the box score with 10 points, nine rebounds, two assists, one block and a steal logging another 35 minutes of court time.

• Toddrick Gotcher tallied seven of his eight points in the final two minutes of each half. He grabbed five rebounds which included the game-clincher as time expired.

• Matthew Temple chipped in five points, four rebounds and two assists, while Justin Gray and Devauntah Williams added three points apiece.

• Texas Tech worked its way to a 24-of-57 shooting effort and sank 7-of-19 from beyond the three-point arc. The Red Raiders connected on 10-of-17 at the free throw line. Tech notched 25 of the game's 32 bench points.

• The Sooners (20-5, 8-5 Big 12) were limited to a 21-for-55 shooting clip. OU was bottled up for a 6-for-23 from three-point territory and misfired on its nine attempts during the second half. The Sooners knocked down 15-for-21 from the charity stripe.

• Jordan Woodard broke out of his recent struggles with a 25-point performance whereas Buddy Hield posted a Big 12 season's low of 16 points on 6-for-16 from the field and committed five turnovers. Isaiah Cousins totaled 10 points and six rebounds for the Sooners.

MOMENTS THAT MATTERED

• With the Red Raiders down 61-57 at the 2:45 mark, Gotcher rattled home a trey on the right baseline off a nice feed from Smith. On the ensuing OU possession, Evans collected a steal and went coast-to-coast for the go-ahead layup to make it 62-61 with 1:56 left.

• Tech forced Hield to miss a stepback jumper on the left baseline. Then, the Red Raiders crashed the glass for a pair of offensive rebounds which forced Oklahoma to foul Evans. He calmly sank two free throws to extend the advantage to 64-61 with 30.7 seconds remaining.

• Woodard drove to the basket and hit a 10-foot runner off glass to bring the Sooners within 64-63. Evans split his free throws as Tech maintained a 65-63 edge with 14.2 seconds to go.

• Following an OU timeout, Cousins went towards the basket and was unable to connect with Khadeem Lattin on a lob pass. The ball was deflected to Ryan Spangler who missed a jump hook in the lane. Gotcher emerged the rebound and went racing up the floor as the buzzer sounded.

• Oklahoma fired out to an early 10-4 advantage at the 13:20 mark of the opening half fueled by three Hield treys. The Sooners led for a majority of the opening 20 minutes before Texas Tech scored the closing eight points of the stanza to take a 34-31 lead into the locker room.

• Gray kickstarted the run with a midrange jumper on the right elbow. After Ross and Gray split two free throws, Evans found a high-flying Smith for an acrobatic layup through contact. Cousins misfired on a jumper, and Gotcher went the distance for a left-handed layup to beat the buzzer to vault the Red Raiders to the three-point halftime spread.

• Neither team could find much breathing room in a second half which featured eight ties and 10 lead changes. A Ross three-ball from the top of the key placed Texas Tech in front 57-55 with 4:46 remaining before Oklahoma tacked on six consecutive points sparked by two free throws courtesy of Cousins and Woodard.

TIMEOUT WITH TUBBY

"I just want to commend our players. It was really an intense game and a great college basketball game against one of the top teams in the country. There's no one in the business that I respect more than Lon Kruger. He's a great friend and he's a real gentleman in this business. Our guys were ready to play. They came with the right attitude. I just can't say enough about the effort that we gave tonight."

"We've been in quite a few of them (late, close games) this year. We've learned from our experiences with close games. The poise we had was impressive. We're playing with patience and playing with poise. We're not panicking. We're aggressively getting to the glass. A huge play was when we were down four - we inbound the ball to Zach (Smith) who had a nice shot fake. He drove the ball and dished it off to Toddrick Gotcher in the corner. Toddrick was struggling tonight, but he's a gamer. He stepped up at the right time and made a big time three which cut it to one. It was a huge play. Then, we got a stop at the other end. The key has been our stops. We've been playing much better defense over the last five games and that's been a big help."

FROM THE BENCH WITH COACH BEARD

"We got beat by a better team tonight. Oklahoma played well. They guarded us. They spread us out. Their best players stepped up. They were an inspired team looking for their first Big 12 win. Their best player was back in the starting lineup. Obviously we would have liked to have played better. I'm not going to sit here and say that that was the reason we lost. We lost tonight because Oklahoma outplayed us."

"It is really hard to stay in front of Woodard. He's one of the best players in the Big 12. I have so much respect for him. To come back from an injury like that, and it was obvious to me that he wasn't going to let his team lose tonight. Woodard, was special ... Here's a guy that has gotten better from year one, two, three to four. He's just a tough matchup. He can really shoot the ball. We were so scared of him shooting that we tried to go over things. When you go over things, he's just hard to keep in front of."

"I thought we were on our heels. I have to go back and watch the film. What was most concerning to me was that it seemed like from where I was sitting that every loose ball Oklahoma got. I thought that they went and got fouled. I thought the officiating was fine. I just felt that the more aggressive team won. Victory favors the more aggressive team. Again, hats off to Oklahoma. We got outrebounded. We got beat on the 50/50 balls. We'll just have to get back to practice and try to fix some of these things."

CAREER AND TEXAS TECH

Chris Beard was named the 17th head coach of the Texas Tech men's basketball program on April 15, 2016 by Director of Athletics Kirby Hocutt and Interim University President Dr. John Opperman.

"We are proud and excited to hire a coach of Chris' caliber," Hocutt said. "Our program achieved tremendous success this year and I see that as something Chris will build upon and take us to even further heights. We are thrilled to have him back home at Texas Tech."

Beard guided Little Rock to a historic turnaround in 2015-16 fueled by 30 victories, which was a program single season record and Sun Belt single season mark. The Trojans claimed the Sun Belt regular season and tournament titles en route to the program's fifth NCAA Tournament bid.

Little Rock overcame a 14-point deficit during the final five minutes of the second half and won an 85-83 double overtime thriller over No. 12-ranked and fifth-seeded Purdue in the NCAA Tournament. The Trojans also registered road victories over San Diego State, Tulsa and DePaul to spark a 10-0 regular season start. The 10-game winning streak to start the season matched a Little Rock program record.

Beard's 30-5 record in his only season at Little Rock was a 15-game improvement from a 13-18 campaign prior to his arrival. The 15-game improvement was tied for the NCAA's top spot in 2015-16, while his 30 victories was tied for sixth by a first-year Division I head coach. Little Rock's 27 wins and .871 winning percentage led the nation during the regular season. For his efforts, Beard collected National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) District 24 and Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year honors.

Beard has amassed a 171-50 record, a .774 winning percentage and 24.4 victories per season during his seven seasons as a head coach. His previous head coaching stops include Fort Scott Community College, Seminole State College, McMurry University, Angelo State, Little Rock and UNLV.

Beard's roots in Lubbock and West Texas run deep. He spent 10 years at Texas Tech which included seven seasons as an assistant coach under Hall of Fame Coach Bob Knight and three seasons as an associate head coach under Pat Knight. The Red Raiders racked up 188 victories -- the best 10-year stretch in program history -- while Tech piled up four NCAA Tournament bids and three NIT appearances. His tenure with the Red Raiders was highlighted by Tech's run to the 2005 NCAA Sweet 16 where the Red Raiders defeated UCLA and No. 11-ranked and three-seeded Gonzaga in the first two rounds.

Beard spent two seasons at Angelo State from 2013-15 where he secured NABC South Central Region and Lone Star Conference Coach of the Year after he guided the Rams to a program record-setting 28 wins and the program's first NCAA Division II Sweet 16 appearance in 2014-15. Angelo State began the season with a 17-0 record and finished with a No. 19 national ranking. Prior to Beard's arrival, the Rams suffered three consecutive losing seasons which included a 71-9 mark in 2012-13.

Before Angelo State, Beard was the head coach at McMurry University and for the American Basketball Association's (ABA) South Carolina Warriors. McMurry went 19-10 with Beard at the helm during the program's first season as a Division II member in 2012-13. The Warriors won the 2012 Mid Atlantic Championship, advanced to the ABA finals and notched a 31-2 mark as a first-year franchise.

Raised in Irving, Texas, Beard's coaching career began in the Lone Star State as a graduate assistant at Incarnate Word followed by a pair of assistant coaching stints at Abilene Christian and North Texas.

Leading into his time with Texas Tech, Beard's first two head coaching opportunities came at Fort Scott Community College in Kansas and Seminole State College in Oklahoma. He led Seminole State College to a 25-6 record and a No. 14 national ranking in 2000-01 after Fort Scott came away with 19 victories and a NJCAA Regional appearance in 1999-2000.

Beard earned his bachelor's degree in kinesiology from the University of Texas in 1995. He has three daughters: Avery, Ella and Margo.
